

Fashion Revue

Dress up to the nines or enjoy watching someone else dress up. Events Direct has some of the finest models in the business. Why not put on a runway fashion show just for your guests. This very popular revue can be incorporated with the latest seasonal styles and technically can be put together as professionally as your budget allows. You can incorporate a well known personality as an Emcee or dance to a big band under the ribbons of black, white, and silver...Great for fundraising! (This revue would be greatly enhanced by adding a fiber optic curtain backdrop or scrim...with lots of flowers)!
