

Dolores Theresia Pine

Mrs. Dolores Theresia Pine, 95, of Rochester Hills, formerly of Gagetown, passed away Sunday, Jan. 9, 2011.

She was born April 26, 1915 in Detroit, daughter of William and Theresia (Brinkman) Dueweke.

On Nov. 14, 1942, she married Norman Pine in Anchorville. He preceded her in death April 7, 1978.

Dolores was a member of the St. Agatha Catholic Church in Gagetown and its Alter Society. She had been a volunteer with the Old Persons Commission for several years and with Bon Secours Hospital in Port Charlotte, Fla. where she had resided for many years, and between those two and other entities, she had amassed more than 30,000 hours of volunteer service. She also had been a Eucharistic Minister for several churches along the way, and she had been caregiver to all children in her life that needed care.

Her early years required that she help on the family farm.

Dolores is survived by several nieces, nephews and loving friends.

Mass of the Christian Burial will be celebrated at noon Saturday, Jan. 15, 2011 at St. Agatha Church, with Fr. Paul Bala and Sr. Dorothy Ann Blasko officiating. Interment will be in the church cemetery. The family has suggested memorials to the St. Agatha cemetery fund.
