MARK THESE DATES ON YOUR CALENDAR RIGHT NOW!

Sep 15—make sure you received annual meeting notice documents

Oct 15—Sunday—annual meeting (more info in notice & next newsletter)

Nov 18—neighborhood wide yard sale

Nov 22—curbside large-item pick up date

At the annual meeting in October, we will need to fill four places on the Board, to reach our allowance of nine.

Since the President cannot lead the nomination effort, please contact any other current Board member to volunteer NOW.

Board members are elected for 2-year terms and must be paid-up HOA members to be considered.

Positive, helpful attitudes and talents assure neighborhood issues get attention and many hands make the HOA tasks easier and more fun. You chose Bay Hills neighborhood for your home—can you find a few hours per month to participate more actively?

BAY HILLS CARES

If you or a neighbor need assistance, please notify any Board member.

Best wishes for healing go to several neighbors dealing with serious health issues.

We gave a fond farewell to Jackie Sanders, 40-yr resident and former Board member for many years. Peg Chiarelli has contact information if you would like to reach her in her new location. She would love to hear from you!

BAY HILLS PRIDE

Do the right thing because it's the right thing to do for our great neighborhood

Parking Memo Update

(please share with visitors/workers)

- ♦ Parking of vehicles in yards or on right-of-way not allowed—use your driveway or safe part of street
- ♦ Clarification about street parking:
 - Law says stay back 30 feet from stop signs (see photo) which is about half the length of yellow lines
 - Common safety sense says keep lanes near intersections clear for traffic & emergency vehicles
 - Be cautious & patient about congestion that happens from time to time

THANKS!
