

Who, Me?
March 2019 sermon series

How many times have you heard about amazing people doing amazing things in the Bible and you think, "As if...I could never be like that." And yet, that's exactly what God thinks of us! This month, we'll hear stories of people that despite their human limitations did God-sized things... and you can, too!

March 3 Daniel Ritchie Guest Speaker

When Daniel was born without arms and not breathing, his parents made a decision that would impact God's kingdom forever. So, what can you do with no arms? Blame God? Be mad at Him? Or what if you took all that and was willing to serve Him instead?

March 10 Naaman's Slave 2 Kings 5

Imagine your country gets invaded, and you are taken as a slave. Your job? Take care of the wife of the guy that led the invasion into your homeland! Do you rebel? Or do you help lead the soldier into a decision that will change his life forever?

March 17 Josiah 2 Kings 22

When you were 8 years old, what did you want to be when you grew up? Now imagine being told at 8, you get to be president! (Insert jokes here...) Josiah actually becomes king of Israel at that age, and he decides to follow in his famous father's footsteps. Years later, he would go on to discover something that had been missing for too long for God's people...and maybe your own life as well.

March 24 Ehud Judges 3

If God told you to sneak into a foreign country and kill its leader, what would you do (besides seek professional help)? Ehud takes the mission, and the next steps lead to the greatest spy movie you've ever seen! What lesson can we learn from this crazy story that will allow peace to rule in our lives?

March 31 5th Sunday Celebration! Home Church

This special Sunday we will not meet at the church building, but in host homes! A carry-in lunch will follow at each house with your small group of fellow believers and guests.
