

BenEve Educational Consulting

Putting the Pieces Together

Queen's University

With the support of the ESS and

The Teaching Excellence Fund

Trainers:

Donna Bennett & Michael Eveleigh

"Dealing with Challenging Parents"

Learn to deal with those awkward conversations with parents. Practice conversing with parents about their concerns and ways to de-escalate negative talk. Most importantly, learn how to foster positive parent/teacher partnerships.

Monday January 22nd, 2024, 9:00 am to Noon

Location: Duncan McArthur Hall, Room A241/242

Registration form available at www.edubeneve.ca

Email registration to Donna Bennett at edubeneve@hotmail.com

Maximum of 30 Participants

Cost per student $5

Fee can be paid by e-transfer. See registration form for details.

The remainder of the workshop fee is covered by the:

"Teaching Excellence Fund"

Training is open to education students.

For availability & more details, email Donna Bennett or call (647) 624-5420

As JK to 12 educators both in Canada and overseas, we have experienced challenging situations and conversations with parents. With over 35 years each as educators, teachers, counselors and administrators, we have trained over 4000 educators in Ontario, Quebec, First Nation Schools and in the Middle East.

Donna Bennett and Michael Eveleigh:

Educational Consultants and Certified Trainers