March 12

The Kamloops Vibe played their final league games this weekend in front of home town fans taking three of a possible four points from the first place South Fraser TNT.

The weekend started Saturday morning at McArthur Island. The TNT got on the board first with 6:03 left in the opening period on a power play goal. Alyssa Reid tied the game for the Vibe with 3:32 remaining in the second, Kathleen McDonald with the assist. Shots for the game were 38-29 for the Vibe

The teams returned to the Sandman Center for the rematch Sunday morning. Kacey Seymour opened scoring on a power-play just four minutes into the game to put Kamloops up by a goal. Assist to Reid. After the teams skated through a scoreless second the TNT tied the game on another power-play at the start of the third. Midway through the period McDonald netted the game winner, assisted by Courtney Morice. Kamloops out-shot the TNT by a 41 to 25 margin.

Kamloops will finish in third place this year, with a 14-5-7 record, behind the TNT and the Richmond Devils. The Provincial Championships will start on March 23 in Richmond, with the Vibe's first games on Friday March 24, 8:30pm and Saturday March 25, 12:00pm at the Richmond Ice Centre.

March 5

After a lengthy four weeks off the ice the Kamloops Vibe returned to the rink abit rusty for a pair of home games this past weekend.

After a scoreless first period, Saturday morning, the Meadow Ridge Moose scored a single in the second and a pair in the third for the 3-0 win.

Sunday morning Kamloops regrouped for the rematch. After two end to end scoreless periods Bianca Olsen scored the eventual winner 30 seconds into the third on an assist from Rochelle Smith. With three minutes left Smith got the insurance goal, assists to Alyssa Reid and Melissa Brunn. Cat Young rounded out the scoring, unassisted, with five seconds on the clock. Ashley Fisher stopped 27 shots for her 11th shutout of the season.

The Vibe remain in second place with 32 points, behind the Richmond Devils and South Fraser TNT with 37 points each.

The TNT are up next for the Vibe's final games of the regular season, this coming weekend, March 11, at 11:00am, at the Olympic Arena and March 12, 11:00am at Sandman Centre.

February 5

The Kamloops Vibe took on winter with a shorthanded trek to the coast this weekend for their final regular season road trip.

The Vibe started the weekend Friday night with a 1-1 draw against the Island Surge. After a scoreless first period the Surge took the lead late in the second, ending Ashley Fisher's 10 game shutout streak. The Island team held the lead until five minutes into the third when Alana Parker tied the game with an assist to Melissa Brunn. Kamloops out-shot the Surge by a 41-15 margin.

Saturday afternoon Kamloops was back on the ice, taking on the Fraser Valley Jets. The Jets got on the board first less than two minutes in but Brunn tied the game with 15 seconds remaining in the period, Brunn was assisted by Bianca Olson. The game remained tied until Cat Young scored the game winner mid way through the third, assist to Parker. Courtney Morice added an unassisted insurance goal for a 3-1 final. Once again the Vibe out-shot the opponent by a 36-18 margin.

The third game of the weekend was against the TWU Titans Sunday afternoon.

After a scoreless first period the Titans took the lead 32 seconds into the second and added another early in the third for a two goal lead. Emily Edmundson put the Vibe within one midway through the last period, assisted by Melissa Brunn and Sylvia Traversa. While out-shooting the TWU team by a wide margin the three games with a short bench took it's toll and the Vibe ran out of gas and was unable to tie the game.

The Vibe are currently tied for first place with the South Fraser TNT at 30 points.

Next up for Kamloops, the meadow Ridge Moose come to Kamloops for a pair of games March 4 and 5.

January 15

The Kamloops Vibe packed up a short bench and headed off to the coast for four SCWHL games this past weekend. The Vibe played the top three teams and returned with three out of the possible eight points for their efforts. Friday evening Kamloops took on the Meadow Ridge Moose in Langley with Rochelle Smith putting the Vibe ahead with 18 seconds left in the first. Smith was assisted by Kathryn Haegedorn and Amber Gudmundson. The Moose tied the game with just under four minutes left in the second and took the lead with 11 seconds left in the period. Kamloops pulled goalie Alana Parker in the dying minutes of the third and while getting numerous opportunities were unable to get the tying goal.

Early Saturday afternoon the team traveled to Delta to take on the first place South Fraser TNT. The TNT took the lead midway through the first, adding two more in the third until Cat Young scored unassisted with just 10 seconds left to spoil the shut-out.

After a short break the Vibe traveled to Richmond to take on the Devils. Less than two minutes into the game Rochelle Smith scored an unassisted goal to put the Vibe up by one. The teams played even, end to end hockey until mid way through the third when the Devils managed to tie the game.

Kamloops returned to Langley to play a rematch against the Moose Sunday morning. Once again Smith scored first for the Vibe, early in the opening frame. The Vibe played a trap style game to keep the Moose off the board, with Cat Young and Emily Edmundson each adding goals in the third, with an assist by Smith. Alana Parker stopped 22 shots for the shut-out.

Scoring this weekend for the Vibe:

Rochelle Smith 3G 1A

The next games for the Vibe are this weekend when the Surrey Mavericks come to Kamloops. Saturday 8:15 AM and Sunday 10 AM, both games are at the Sandman Center.

January 8

After a lengthy six week Christmas break the Kamloops Vibe returned to play this weekend, at home, against the first place Richmond Devils. The Sandman Center was the back drop for this week's action with the Vibe coming out on top of the Devils Saturday by a 1-0 score. The teams remained scoreless until 3 minutes left in the second when Kathleen McDonald rushed down the ice unassisted for the game winner. Ashley Fisher stopped all 16 shots she faced for her 8th consecutive shutout.

The teams returned to the ice for the rematch Sunday and played a fast paced, scoreless game until the Devils got one past AP goalie Ashlynn Neurauter six minutes left in the second. Cat Young tied the game three minutes into the third, assisted by Bianca Mirabelli. Shots were 27-15 in favor of the Devils.

Kamloops remains in third place in the league, with 20 points, three points behind Richmond, with a game in hand. The Vibe and Devils will meet again this coming weekend when Kamloops travels to the lower mainland for four league games.

December 3

Rochelle Smith was named the leagues first star for week nine after scoring four goals and adding five assists in a pair of weekend games against the Fraser Valley Jets. She now is on top of the scoring race with 14 goals, for 22 points in 11 games.

Ashley Fisher is the second star adding to her league leading shutout total blanking the jets twice. She now has seven consecutive shutouts in a total of nine games played

November 27

The Kamloops Vibe played their final weekend of games before the Christmas break hosting the Fraser Valley Jets at the Sandman Center.

The Vibe's next games will be at home January 7-8 against the first place Richmond Devils

October 30

The Kamloops Vibe played a triple header this weekend at home against the Trinity Western University Titans. Saturday morning the teams got the weekend underway at the Olympic Arena, with a scoreless first period. Rochelle Smith put the Vibe on the board midway through the second with Courtney Morice adding an insurance goal seven minutes into the third for the 2-0 win.

The Vibe were back on the ice Saturday evening for the second game. Smith once again scored the game winner, unassisted, with just eleven seconds into the game. Smith added her second of the game with ten seconds left in the first. Courtney Morice added a third in the middle of the second period with Melissa Brunn rounding out the scoring in the last period for a 4-0 win.

Memorial arena was the venue for the third game of the weekend on Sunday morning. After playing scoreless through the first two periods Alyssa Reid put the home team up by a goal four minutes into the third. Desiree Blair scored her first of the season with a minute and a half left in the game for a 2-0 final, the fifth straight shut-out for the Vibe. Ashley Fisher played all three games in the Vibe net, stopping 55 shots, earning her third, fourth and fifth shut-outs in seven games this season. The Vibe fired 95 shots at the TWU net this weekend.
