

Philippine Consulate General and Philippine Overseas Labor Office Meet Yukon Officials

20 August 2019 – Consul Arlene T. Magno (2R) and Labor Attaché Margarita Victorino-Marquez (rightmost) meet with Mr. Andrew Gaule (2L), Director for Business and Industry Development of the Department of Economic Development, Mr. Ashley Quirke-Tomlins (leftmost), Intergovernmental Relations Officer of the Executive Council Office, and Mr. Marius Curteanu (3L), Manager, Immigration, Economic Development, in preparation for the official visit to Yukon of Philippine Secretary of Labor and Employment Silvestre Bello III in August. Also in the meeting were Welfare Officer Lilia De Guzman and Assistant Labor Attaché Oliva Macawili (not in photo).

(Left photo, L-R) Consul Arlene T. Magno, Welfare Officer Lilia De Guzman, Labor Attaché Margarita Victorino-Marquez and Assistant Labor Attaché Olivia Macawili visit the Yukon Legislative Assembly, where they meet with Minister of Health and Social Services Pauline Frost to explore the credentialing of Filipino nurses in Yukon. (Right photo) Consulate officials pose with Minister Frost (3L) and Assistant Deputy Minister Karen Chan (2L).

Consul Arlene T. Magno (rightmost), Labor Attaché Margarita Victorino-Marquez (2L), Welfare Officer Lilia De Guzman (2R) and Assistant Labor Attaché Olivia Macawili (leftmost) pose with Mr. Sean Hopkins, Executive Director of the Yukon Registered Nurses Association (YRNA), who briefed them on the mandate and goals of the YRNA.