iguana

There are many different types of iguanas. The iguana is a member of the lizard family. Some live in dry places such as deserts. Other iguanas live in moist places such as tropical rain forests.

Ibex

The goat lives in the mountains of Europe, Asia, and Africa. Both the male and the female ibex have horns. The male's horns are much longer than the female's horns.

Irish wolfhound

An excellent hunting dog, the Irish wolfhound is also a wonderful pet. This dog is very large and powerful. Irish wolfhounds may have coats of different colors.

ambulance a van for taking hurt or sick people to a hospital. I hear the siren of an ambulance.

ant a tiny insect that lives in large groups. They eat or drink much larger than they. The ant is wearing one of its six legs.

antler the branched horns on the head of a deer. Male deer shed and regrow their antlers every year.

ape an animal like a large monkey with no tail with long arms and a big brain. The smart chimpanzee is an ape. Gorillas are apes.

apple a hard, round fruit that grows on trees. I eat a crisp, red apple. This green apple looks so sweet as the red or yellow one.

armchair a comfortable, padded chair with high sides for resting your arms. Daddy sits in an armchair to read.

astronaut a person who travels in space. An astronaut leaves Earth in a space ship and goes back to the Moon.
