

ANNOUNCING THE PASTOR/PARISH RELATIONS COMMITTEE

We want you to know that there's a new Pastor/Parish Relations Committee (PPRC) in our church!

Question: What is the Pastor/Parish Relations Committee?

Answer: The Pastor/Parish Relations Committee, known as the PPRC, is a small team that exists in congregations of the United Church of Christ to promote, support and maintain an open and healthy relationship between the Pastor and the congregation as well as the congregants with each other.

Question: Why is the PPRC necessary?

Answer: The PPRC is necessary to promote and support communications and nurture healthy relationships between the members of the congregation, the Pastor, and other church staff personnel. If concerns or conflicts arise, the PPRC is the primary way to help resolve these concerns or conflicts.

Question: Who is on the PPRC in our church?

Answer: In Community Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, New Port Richey, Florida, the PPRC consists of five people, and they are: Bob Robida (Chair), Della O'Shea, John Boyer, and Renee Seldin.

Question: How do I, and, when may I, reach out confidentially to the PPRC?

Answer: Please know that the members of the PPRC are available to the congregants and to the Pastor at any time. If a need arises, please feel free to reach out confidentially to any member of the PPRC in person, by phone, and/or by email.
