

Kirk Patrick Haley

Kirk Patrick Haley, 38, of Sacramento, passed away Sunday, June 14, 2015, as a result of injuries suffered in a traffic accident.

Kirk was the grandson of long-time Bad Axe residents G. Kirk Haley and Bernice C. Haley, and the son of Dr. James L. Haley.

He was born March 14, 1977, in Bad Axe. He moved with his family to California in 1988, and attended University of California at Davis. He was employed by the State of California, Department of Social Services, as a government analyst at the time of his death.

Kirk is survived by his mother, Sharon; brother, Brent; uncle, George; aunt, Carol Connors; and several cousins.

He was preceded in death by his father.

A private celebration of life is being conducted for immediate family and friends.