

*Engaging the mind,
moving the body,
enriching the soul,
sharing smiles...*

MarbleJam Kids is a 501c3 non-profit organization providing creative arts therapy & enrichment programs to individuals of all ages with special needs. Programs are housed in a facility equipped with studios for dance, fitness, music, art, yoga, and educational enrichment. Therapists, special educators, teaching artists, & support staff provide the optimal approach based on each individual's needs.

Founded by mothers of children with special needs in 2007, the mission of the organization remains the same today, to introduce experiences from which children may successfully explore creative sentiments; while therapeutically challenging their abilities to overcome impairments.

MarbleJam Kids relies on contributions and supplements costs of programs to ensure affordability.

Who We Are...

MarbleJam Kids is a 501c3 nonprofit organization and state authorized service provider located in the heart of Bergen County, NJ. The organization has been providing specialized therapeutic arts programming and therapy to children of all ages with special needs since 2007. A Center for Creative Arts Therapy, MarbleJam Kids is one of the very few facilities that offers all creative arts therapeutic modalities, art, music, movement, drama therapy. MarbleJam Kids also provides supported arts enrichment through after school and summer programming that infuses inclusion and pre-vocational arts experiences.

Providing arts programs that support the wellness of adults with disabilities is a natural progression for the organization. Young adults who age out of school require programs that continue to provide social, emotional, and logistical support.

MarbleJam® Arts in Work Program is approved under habilitation services by NJ DDD
