

INTROIT - entrance Psalm of worship

Psalm 1

- ℣ Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the | wicked,*
nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of | scoffers;
- ☩ but his delight is in the law | of the LORD,***
and on his law he meditates | day and night.
- ℣ He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not | wither.*
In all that he does, he | prospers.
- ☩ The wicked | are not so,***
but are like chaff that the wind | drives away.
- ℣ Therefore the wicked will not stand in the | judgment,*
nor sinners in the congregation of the | righteous;
- ☩ for the LORD knows the way of the | righteous,***
but the way of the wicked will | perish.

*Continued with the 'Gloria Patri', p. 186COLLECT OF THE DAY - ancient prayer of the Church based upon the Scriptural theme of the day

- ℣ Blessed Lord, since You have caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning, grant that we may so hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
- ☩ Continued with sung "Amen", p. 189

OLD TESTAMENT Ezekiel 17:22-24 God speaking of His Kingdom, His Church

Thus says the Lord GOD: "I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of the cedar and will set it out. I will break off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. On the mountain height of Israel will I plant it, that it may bear branches and produce fruit and become a noble cedar. And under it will dwell every kind of bird; in the shade of its branches birds of every sort will nest. And all the trees of the field shall know that I am the LORD; I bring low the high tree, and make high the low tree, dry up the green tree, and make the dry tree flourish. I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will do it."

GRADUAL the ancient seasonal, Scriptural response to hearing God's Word

Psalm 145

- ℣ Great is the Lord and most wor- | thy of praise. *
And His greatness no one can | fathom.
- ☩ On Your wondrous works, I will | meditate, ***
and I will declare Your | greatness.

EPISTLE 2 Corinthians 5:1-10 God's eternal care of our body and soul

For we know that if the tent that is our earthly home is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this tent we groan, longing to put on our heavenly dwelling, if indeed by putting it on we may not be found naked. For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened—not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight.

Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil.

HOLY GOSPEL Mark 4:26-34 Parables of Jesus

[Jesus] said, "The kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed on the ground. He sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows; he knows not how. The earth produces by itself, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. But when the grain is ripe, at once he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come."

And he said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable shall we use for it? It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when sown on the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth, yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden plants and puts out large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade."

With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it. He did not speak to them without a parable, but privately to his own disciples he explained everything.

3RD Sunday after Pentecost June 13, 2021

With Farewell & Godspeed to a Church Worker

Welcome to the Lord's House. The Cross of Christ Is the Tree of Life, Which Bears Abundant Fruit after Its Own Kind. The parables of our Lord convey the mysteries of the kingdom of God to those "able to hear it...his own disciples," who are catechized to fear, love and trust in Him by faith (Mark 4:34). He scatters "seed on the ground," which "sprouts and grows" unto life (Mark 4:26). "On the mountain height of Israel," He plants a young and tender twig, and it becomes "a noble cedar." Indeed, His own cross becomes the Tree of Life, under which "every kind of bird" will dwell, and in which "birds of every sort will nest" (Ezek. 17:22-25). His cross is our resting place, even while now in mortal bodies, we "groan, being burdened" (2 Cor.5:1-4). Yet in faith, we live for God in Christ, who for our sake "died and was raised" (2 Cor. 5:15). We know that, in His resurrected body, "we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens" (2 Cor. 5:1). May the Lord bless this Divine Service.

You have caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning, grant that we may so hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life. Collect of the Day

...for we walk by faith, not by sight. 1 Corinthians 5

We celebrate the Lord's Supper today, in the confession, as Jesus says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread, wine but His very real, true body, blood to eat, drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him, and with one another. According to Scripture, Holy Communion is also a public confession of faith, sharing a unity in doctrinal belief; also those who eat, drink our Lord's body, blood unworthily or without discernment do so to their harm. In love towards God and our neighbor, according to Scripture, the Church has always practiced a closed communion. Therefore, in love and pastoral concern for our guests, if you are not a member of the LCMS and desire to receive the Sacrament, please speak with the pastor first.
