Broomfield Council on the Arts & Humanities Mission Statement

"Broomfield Council on the Arts & Humanities is a nonprofit, membership-based organization, dedicated to the advancement of the arts and humanities. We strive for quality programs by nurturing creative ideas, fostering community participation, facilitating professional excellence in member offerings, and ensuring inclusive access for residents of Broomfield and surrounding communities."

Welcome to BCAH's New Board Member

The Broomfield Council on the Arts & Humanities (BCAH) relies on its Board of Directors (BoD) to provide oversight of operations, raise funds, and ensure the overall health of the nonprofit organization. The Board has a dynamic team of longstanding members and new members that allow BCAH to keep its roots and also evolve as time goes on.

The BoD is thrilled to introduce the newest member of the team:

Jill Carcagno is an Associate VP of Finance at Agilent Technologies where she leads a global finance transformation team. Jill has lived in Broomfield and the surrounding area for many years. She grew up in South Dakota but has also resided in Pennsylvania, Washington, Texas, California, Switzerland, and Germany. Jill has traveled the globe for work and pleasure and enjoys collecting local artistic treasures from each of her journeys. Jill is a theater enthusiast and enjoys musicals most of all.

The BoD invites you, as a BCAH supporter and creative advocate, to join the team! Board members serve two-year terms and can be creatives, business owners, for-profit or nonprofit professionals, and those with skills that they would like to utilize in their volunteering time with BCAH. Reach out today!

A healthy community values and supports local and diverse arts, cultural, and science programming. Creative experiences are essential to a healthy life and should be available to everyone!

Become an ambassador and encourage friends, family, and local businesses to become supporters of the Broomfield Council on the Arts & Humanities, Broomfield's arts, culture, and science nonprofit umbrella organization since 1973.

Colorado Repertory Singers News

Colorado Repertory Singers (CRS) was delighted to present "Together In Song" in collaboration with Rocky Mountain High School and Erie High School in April.

CRS is a nonprofit arts organization with a foundational pillar of supporting music education, music educators and student musicians. The April event was the culmination of multi-year planning and the shared efforts of not only the performers but the friends and families that surrounded each of us.

In the upcoming season, CRS is eager to move into new intersections with musicians and communities around the metro area that we might not otherwise intersect with in our daily lives. We will release our Fall season schedule soon and encourage you to share these experiences with us.

For more information and to purchase tickets, visit ColoradoRepertorySingers.org and the CRS Facebook or Instagram pages.

An Update from the Broomfield Art Guild

The Broomfield Art Guild continues to meet on the second Tuesday of the month in person at the Presbyterian Church of Broomfield. We recently refreshed our logo, designed by member Jane Doak. Upcoming meeting demos include liquid watercolor painting and a workshop on matting, framing, and wiring. However, we don't meet in July due to the summer break. We also meet for plein air painting on the first and third Thursdays of the month; see our website for locations. Our New Member Show runs May 2 to Jun 7 at the Brunner Farmhouse in Broomfield. We have exhibits at iPie Pizza and the Broomfield City & County Building.

For more information, check out our Facebook page, visit the BAG website at BroomfieldArtGuild.org, or contact BAG by sending an email to BroomfieldArtGuild@gmail.com.

New Videos on CEG's Website

B Chamber Ensemble con Grazia

In an in-going series, Chamber Ensemble con Grazia (CEG) is in the middle of posting seven videos in honor of co-founder William Kearns (1928-2020) on CEG's new and simplified website. Already, five videos in the "Remembering Bill" series have been posted which has generated interest from viewers who submitted additional photos and information related to the topics in the conversation.

Dr. Thomas Riis, former Director of the American Music Research Center at the University of Colorado-Boulder, joins Grace Asquith in conversations about Bill's diverse musical activities. Each short video will share stories, photos and recordings of Bill Kearns. His gift of music with his unique horn sound and interest in music of living composers will be the focus of each video.

Visit Congrazia.com to see the new website and enjoy the videos.

Exciting News from the Broomfield Spellbinders

Broomfield Spellbinders has a New Leader

Kay Landers, who guided the group for three years which was made difficult by the Covid-related school closures, is passing the torch to Julie Toepper, who has been an active member and storyteller for the past three years. Julie will have the support of the Steering Committee who share responsibility for fiscal oversight and record-keeping, as well as relations with schools and the Spellbinders organization; meeting planning; and recruitment and training of new members (see below).

You Can Become A Volunteer Storyteller

As soon as Covid guidelines allowed it, a few Broomfield Spellbinders were able to return to in-person classroom storytelling where interaction with the students brightened our lives and theirs. We are confident that more schools will welcome us back for the 2022-23 school year, so we have scheduled training for new volunteer storytellers for September 20, 23, 26, and 29 at Brunner Farmhouse. Each class will be for three hours, starting at 1 p.m. Participation in all four classes is required for certification, but alternate arrangements are usually possible if a participant must miss just one class. The fee is $50 which covers the cost of training materials and nametags for the new tellers. A brief interview and background check must be completed before the training starts. For more information about training, contact Wynn at wynnmill@comcast.net. To learn more about Spellbinders and our local organization, visit Spellbinders.org, Spellbinders.org-affiliate-Broomfield, and our webpage at ArtsinBroomfield.org.

Broomfield Spellbinders Well-Represented at National Annual Meeting

BackStory Theatre's Summer Schedule

Did you know BackStory has interesting and fun classes all summer long for students and entertainment for the whole family? Join our community by taking a class in our studio or one of our community-based workshops at Garden Center or Village Square apartments, or watching one of our many excellent performances! For adults, we invite you to get involved with our Wellspring program by joining us at Brunner Farmhouse & Gardens for three nights of the 3rd Annual CO New Musical Festival where scenes and songs from new works will be presented as staged readings by local performers. Wellspring engages adults all year long as performers, readers/adjudicators of new works, directors, and partners. Check out our Wellspring page to join in monthly meetings for creatives of all types. Visit BackStoryTheatre.org for tickets, audition and class registration, and information about the following events:

Enchanted Bookshop

July 8 | 1-2:30 p.m., July 9 | 6-7:30 p.m.

Actors are auditioned performers from ages 9-18 in BackStory's Youth Theatre company. You won't want to miss this show! Tickets are $5-10.

CO New Musical Festival at Brunner Farmhouse & Gardens

July 19, 21, 23 | 7:30-8:30 p.m.

Performances of new musical theatre scenes and songs performed as staged readings with live accompaniment featuring different works each night. Submissions are accepted in January, adjudicated through the Spring, and brought to audiences for the purpose of sharing in the creative process. This unique program allows authors and composers to hear their works interpreted/performed by actors which furthers their progress in having finished pieces. Selection is heavily in favor of local(ish) creators and stories from those with historically marginalized voices. All performers, directors, and authors are enthusiastic to speak with audiences about the pieces after the showcase.

Auditions for Fall Musical

August 21 | 11:30 a.m.

Experienced actors from ages 8-18 are invited to audition for BackStory's Youth Theatre company! Actors must pre-register for an audition time slot, submit an actor's audition form, resume, headshot, and scheduling conflicts. Performers will deliver 60 seconds of a memorized comedic monologue and 32 bars (60 seconds) of a song of their own choosing.

Broomfield Community Players Announces Play in August

The Broomfield Community Players production of Rehearsal for Murder last Spring was a great success with raving reviews from attendees. Audiences enjoyed the twist and turns this murder mystery had to offer. The cast and crew, most of whom were local talent, worked very hard every night for two months to put the show together.

It's due to the hard work and love for theatre by the cast and crew that this program continues to attract an increasing number of attendees to its performances. Known for its extraordinarily talented casts and set designs, you will wish after attending one production that you could go back in time and experience all of their productions. Become a fan now and don't miss another one as they only hold a few performances each year.

BCAH Presents Broomfield Community Players in Neil Simon's Rumors

August 26 & 27 | 7 p.m.

August 28 | 2 p.m.

Location: TBD

Appropriate for adults

Award-winning author, Neil Simon, created this farce based on the fact that truth becomes slippery when multiple people retell it. Remember the telephone game from school? The show takes place at a large, tastefully-appointed Sneden's Landing townhouse where the Deputy Mayor of New York has just shot himself. Though only a flesh wound, four couples are about to experience a severe attack of Farce. Gathering for their tenth wedding anniversary, the host lies bleeding in the other room, and his wife is nowhere in sight. His lawyer, Ken, and wife, Chris, must get "the story" straight before the other guests arrive. As the confusions and miscommunications mount, the evening spins off into classic farcical hilarity.

The location is still being determined, so stay tuned. This adult comedy is one you won't want to miss, but, be advised, there is some strong language in this show. Auditions for the show will be held on June 18 and 20. Times and location to be announced. Stay tuned for more details and purchase your tickets right away on Brown Paper Tickets once ticketing opens!

2022 Broomfield Days Poster Contest

Each year for decades, the Broomfield Days Poster Contest puts out a call for artistic submissions that reflect the community spirit of Broomfield Days. Local leaders and residents select the 1st and 2nd place winners. The winning artists are announced at BCAH's Summer Sunday Fest on August 14 and receive a monetary award ($100 for 1st place and $50 for 2nd place). The 1st place winning artist also has their artwork printed as the official poster for that year. Posters are archival quality, limited edition, and signed by the artist. Only 50 posters are printed each year. For those artists under 16 years of age, BCAH is announcing a Junior Award category with an award and ribbon. Proceeds from poster sales and entry fees are applied to the following year's awards and printing costs.

2021 1st Place
Entry by Mike Rigirozzi

Will this year's winner be you? Paintings, drawings, photographs, digital art, and mixed media are accepted; must be 16"x20". Artists of all ages are encouraged to submit up to three entries. Each entry is $10-15. Entry forms and fees must be received by July 1. Artwork must be delivered to the Brunner Farmhouse on July 25.

This year's forms will be available online at ArtsinBroomfield.org. From the menu, select "Broomfield Days Poster Contest" under "Programs." If you would like the form emailed to you, send an email to BCAH@ArtsinBroomfield.org. Entry fees can be submitted through the website by clicking on the "Donate" button or mailing a check.
