A fantastic gift for your favorite piper or drummer

Invermark Piping & Drumming Summer School in its 56th year

"The Best Week of Your Summer" will be with Invermark at Hunter Mountain, New York. Plan on 5 days of intensive instruction, given by exceptional pipers and drummers--World Class Professionals. There will be time for play too! Evening Workshops and Thursday Nite Recital/Ceilidh--invite your family and friends to hear the instructors perform. Post-Recital entertainment by students, who always cook up interesting performances.

The Kaatskill Mountain Club provides our accommodations for the week. A beautiful hotel with a variety of options for individuals or groups. A full kitchen is available in the larger suites, pool, hot-tub, work-out room. If you are looking for other options please visit: www.hunterresortvacations.com for a variety of options in the Catskill Mountains.

The cost for the week is $525 (or $475 if paid in full prior to May 1st). Registration and payment are due by June 30, 2018.

Coming with your family? There is tons to do in the Catskills--hike, bike, wine, arts, fine dining, history. check out: www.visitthecatskills.com for more information

Donald Lindsay

Founder of Invermark, along with his father James, Donald is one of the most knowledgeable and inspirational bagpipe teachers in North America. In addition to a specialty in Piobaireachd, Donald has a wealth of experience in solo and band musicianship. He has taught and developed legions of pipers in the Northeast and beyond. His teaching methods will challenge and inspire pipers to achieve their best. Donald was the second American to win the Silver Medal for Piobaireachd in 1985.

He served as Pipe Major of the Oran Mor Pipe Band for 13 years leading the band from Grade 3 to Grade 1.

Willie McCallum

As one of the foremost competing pipers in the world today, Willie has won almost every prize in solo piping several times over. His list of achievements include: Glenfiddich 8 times; Gold Medals, Clasps, Silver Stars, Bratach Gorms, and Donald Macleod Memorials. A long serving member of the Scottish Power Pipe Band, winning three major championships, Willie is in demand as a recitalist, adjudicator and teacher and has five solo recordings to his credit.

Bruce Gandy

Champion competitor, composer, and teacher, Bruce Gandy's career has spanned Canada from west to east, and seen participation in pivotal moments in the modern era. As a member of the 78th Fraser

Highlanders (Toronto), 1987 World Champions he was not only a member of the 1st band to win the World's outside of Scotland, he was also part of the seminal recording (solo and band member) "Live in Ireland". He won the Gold Medals at Inverness (2002) and Oban (2003). Most recently, he won the Silver Star (Inverness Former winners MSR) in 2015. As a composer he has published 4 Volumes of music, "Contemporary and Traditional Music". He is a member of the 78th Highlanders Halifax Citadel, (former Pipe Sergeant). His teaching services are highly sought after both as a private teacher and clinician. His current project involves creating a lesson package for all of his compositions.

Workshops, Caintaireachd Choir, Recitals and Workshops

Morning sessions with Donald Lindsay--you'll definitely be ready for the day, Evening Workshop/Events--Pipe Idol/Drum Idol, Thursday Evening Instructor Recital & Student Ceilidh.

Performance Evaluations

Students will have an opportunity to receive a Performance Evaluation with an Invermark Instructor on competition or non-competition material.

Jack Lee

Jack is one of the most respected pipers in the world. In addition to winning many of Piping's highest competitions (Gold Medals, Clasps, Bratach Gorms, and Glenfiddichs) he has served as Pipe Sergeant of the Simon Fraser University Pipe Band for over 30 years, developing the band from a regional Grade 1 band to World Champions, 6 Times! Jack is passionate about "passing it on" to pipers of all levels. As Instructor for the Robert Malcolm Memorial Pipe Band (RMM), Jack has developed many young pipers and directed RMM Pipe Band to 6 World Championships. Jack and his sons make reeds, pipe bags, as well as an archive of over 2,900 recordings.

Derek Cooper

Derek was literally "born into Pipe Bands". As the Great-Grandson and founder of the Ulster Scottish Pipe Band John Hall founded a dynasty. His son and Derek's Grandfather, Tommy Hall lead the band for 42 years creating an environment where his mother, aunts and uncles were important in his early development. In addition to playing in Ulster, Derek played with Oran Mor (2005-2006) SFU (2007-2013, World Championship Band and Drumming) and joined Inverary & District in 2015 winning both the World Championship for Band and Drum Corps this year. Some highlights of Derek's solo accomplishments include: 4 time winner of the North American Gold Medal for Drumming at Winter Storm and the first only American drummer to compete in the Finals of the World Solo Drumming Championships in Glasgow (2008, 2010, 2016, 2017)
