TREASURER'S REPORT

Treasurer, Susan Greene, reported that the current balance is $4,250.22.

MEMBERSHIP

Kerry Vansant reported that we have 53 members.
We had a guest, Gregg Colson, who joined today (he is counted in the 53 above).

Chair/Co-chairs open.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE

October: Origami Purse Workshop - Cost is $20.
November: Sharon Shirley lecture/trunk show. Workshop on creative labels follows – Cost $45.
December: our annual Holiday Party.
A new chairperson(s) will be needed starting January 2020.

QUILT SHOW

Carol reported that there were 74 quilts in the show. (Correction: this number was incorrect; we had 64 entry forms with 4 panel palooza quilts and one quilt for the Relay making the total 69 quilts.) 17 guild members entered quilts and 10 non-members entered quilts. (We would really like to have more members enter next year!)

Thank you to all of you who volunteered to make this show a success. We really did not have any "hick-ups"; all went smoothly. Thank you all, again.

We also had several sponsorship donations from local businesses and quilt shows as well as our own members so that all expenses were covered.

SUNSHINE

Suzanne Just reported that cards were sent to Sandy Davis, Carmina Bender, Brenda Stonesifer, Linda Baldwin (stent put in), Bonnie Spoon (vertigo), Linda Puhle (husband had knee replacement), and an email Sunshine for Vicki Warren (surgery to close an opening in heart).

Received an email from Vicki saying " I'm doing well and tell everyone I said hello and thank you for your thoughts and prayers!"

Please contact me if you are aware if one of our members needs a card. You may e-mail me at justsuz@shentel.net or call 540-856-3587.

HOSTESSES

There were no snacks this morning, so no hostesses needed, because we had our meeting at the Fair/Quilt Show. Hope Bird reported that we are covered for hostessing for the remainder of the year.

HAPPY BUCKS

Several of our members shared good news and gave happy bucks.
