

Lorain County Beekeepers Association

is proud to announce the

24TH ANNUAL FIELD DAY

Saturday, June 2, 2018

Guest Speaker:
Tom Nolan

"Controlling the Most Devastating Aspect of Beekeeping Today"
Tom Nolan serves as the North American Sales Representative for NOD Apiary Products Ltd. NOD continues to aid the developing apiculture industry by producing organic and sustainable Honey bee health products, they are dedicated to environmental stewardship.

AGENDA FOR THE DAY

- 9:30 am Registration
- 10:00 am Welcome
- 10:15 am Tom Nolan/NOD Global
- 11:30 am Lunch
- 12:00 pm Alpaca Shearing
- 12:30 pm Don Downs

Field Events

- 12:30 to 1:30 pm
 - Installed Bees in April - Now What?
 - Queen Rearing: Demaree Method, Supersedure Method, and Simple Grafting
 - Tom Nolan; Mite Away® Quick Strips (MAQS) Application and Q&A

1:30 to 2:30 pm

- Hive Necropsy & Basic Tool Techniques
- Making Hive Splits
- Secrets of the Slatted Rack/Queen Excluder and Pollen Trap

2:30 pm Closing Remarks & Contest Winners

- 50/50 Raffle
- Bee Hive and Mini Bee Hive Raffles
- Guess the Wax Weight
- Honey Weight Contest
- Count the Bees - Win the Bees!
- Door Prizes

Varroa mites feeding on honey bee larva. Photo credit: Zachary Huang, Michigan State University

Denzil St. Clair
Field Events

Don Downs
Apitherapy

Brought to you by LCBA & Queen Right Colonies, Ltd.

LOCATION

Queen Right Colonies, Ltd.

Denzil & Sheila St. Clair
43655 State Route 162
Spencer, Ohio 44275

Tel: 440-647-2602

This is a rain or shine event. Field events and contests may change to accommodate inclement weather.

Lunch available for $10, includes: Bratwurst & BBQ Pork Sandwich, Potato Salad, Baked Beans, Chips, Brownie and drink.

Lunch tickets will be pre-sold.

NO USED GLOVES OR HIVE TOOLS. HELMETS & VEILS A MUST FOR BEE YARDS.

Humble Bee
Joy & Laughter

Join in the Fun!