

JCGC Minutes

8-20-20

Livingston called the meeting to order at 7:02 at Dillsboro River Company.

Those present Livingston Kelley, Blair Yount, Rob Pittman, Lloyd Eargle, Bill Hambling, Jim Buchanan, Curtis Grace, Mike Bowler, Karen Dean

Blair Yount read the minutes of the last meeting. Curtis Grace moved to accept and Jim Buchanan 2nd. The motion passed.

Karen Dean read the treasurers report. Mike Bowler moved to accept, Curtis Grace 2nd and the motion passed.

Livingston Kelley will coordinate the Championship tournament scheduled for October 3, 2020. Bill Hambling about the eligibility of 8 plays. Kelley said he has a record of all matches for the past 2 years,

The question came up about the annual banquet. Blair moved to not have it this year. Jim Buchanan 2nd and the motion passed.

There was $125 raised to buy bibles in memory of Rick Guenther.

The question came up whether a member who has not been contributing to the HIO pot, but decides to and gets a HIO, is he eligible to win the HIO prize money. The answer is YES, IF he/she is a member. The amount would depend on the number of years they have been a member .

Kelley asked the club if the price of club membership should be raised. After discussion, the members decided to leave as is.

Tom Tabor will be the chair of the nominating comm. Mike Bowler and Livingston Kelley's position on the board are up for election.

Members discussed requiring members to be a coordinator. It was decided that each coordinator should have a helper. They will get their own helpers. Members will not be required to coordinate but asked to.

Members are asked to PLEASE put your initial and last name on all score cards. You may not get your appropriate score if the scorer doesn't know which JIM is on the card.

Curtis Grace is going to investigate the purchase of JCGC logo hats. He will report back to the club.

Bill Hambling suggested that we be more liberal in our rules for each tournament, since we play on courses that are not pristine, PGA type courses. All agreed.

Bill also asked that we repair our divots and ball marks.

The meeting adjourned at 8:12