Central Minnesota Wedding Association Announces Member Award Recipients

The Central Minnesota Wedding Association announced the recipients of its Vendor of Distinction and XO Awards at their annual Awards Dinner. The event was held on Monday, January 25 at the St. Cloud Country Club.

Wedding & Tuxedo Connection was recognized as a 2016 Vendor of Distinction and XO Award recipient.

Include the following if you have been a Vendor of Distinction recipient previously:

Wedding & Tuxedo Connection has been recognized as a Vendor of Distinction since 2015.

The Vendor of Distinction awards are presented to members of the association based on reviews from their clients posted on the Central Minnesota Wedding Association website or other social media platforms.

The 'XO' Award is to recognize an association member that has exhibited an eXtraOrdinary wedding experience that has been deemed to "above and beyond the call of duty."

The Central Minnesota Wedding Association is comprised of wedding industry professionals to provide networking relationships and to be a comprehensive resource for engaged couples in the greater Central Minnesota area. The foundation of the association is education, professional development and networking. The association was founded in August of 2008 in St. Cloud.
