

What Is God Really Like?

That is a very profound question, asked by children and adults alike. Answers range from the image of an old man in a white robe with a beard; the all-seeing eye on the back of the dollar bill; “the big guy” up there. Such answers seem frivolous when we think about the dynamic force behind the Big Bang from which evolved everything in the billions of galaxies that we know exist. What is such a God really like?

FOR Reflection

- ★ How do you think of God?
- ★ Why do you suppose you think of God in that way?

The disciples were probably not thinking of astrophysics when they asked Jesus about God. Their questions flowed from Jesus’ constant reference to God as Father. That title in itself tells us something about God. It tells us that God, like a father, is the source of Jesus’ being and existence.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus tells the disciples that he is about to return to his Father. He also assures them that they also will have a place with the Father. However, like us, they still are not sure what this Father is like. Jesus responds to their lack of understanding and suggests: “Look at me!” His life is lived for others. He is one who cares for those in need rather than walks past them, who forgives rather than condemns, who endures misunderstanding without retaliating, who tolerates the pettiness of others without being snide. Why is it so hard for us to realize that this is what God is really like?

Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”

Dear Padre,

Are there models I can use to help me better understand what a mother is to do or be?

A great model for mothers is the Blessed Virgin Mary. The Catechism of the Catholic Church uses the titles of Advocate, Helper, Benefactress, and Mediatrix when speaking of Mary (CCC 969). These titles are important in explaining Mary's special relationship to us, her children. We can also use these titles to show how mothers today can relate to their children and spouses.

Mary encourages us in our efforts to follow Christ. So it is the duty of all mothers to be a guiding presence to their children as they begin to pray and learn to follow the Lord.

As Advocate and Helper, Mary assists us by her own prayer and example. Mary prays for us, and we only have to read Scripture to understand Mary's example of listening to God. Today's mothers share the task of praying for their children and spouses. A mother's example of listening for God can teach her children the importance of seeking God's will.

As Benefactress, Mary is a patron and invites us to receive the graces that only her Son can bestow. In today's family, a mother offers a constant stream of love and encouragement to her spouse and children. She is the patron of love, a refuge from the harshness that life can bring.

As Mediatrix, Mary brings people together to be coworkers with Christ in the work of salvation. Also, a mother is a mediator, a coworker with Christ, helping her children and spouse on their journeys toward salvation. Her family is a little church where heaven and salvation are proclaimed. Happy Mother's Day!

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

Be my ambassador, [Mary] says to us, giving food to the hungry, drink to those who thirst, a refuge to those in need, clothe the naked and visit the sick. Come to the aid of your neighbor, forgive whoever has offended you, console the grieving, be patient with others, and above all beseech and pray to God.

—HOMILY, FEBRUARY 13, 2016

The Mass will be live-streamed on Facebook from IC Church on Saturday, May 9, at 5:00 PM and on Sunday, May 10, at 11:00 AM.

THE CHURCH IN A PANDEMIC

WELCOME!

Welcome to our parish and the celebration of Mass. Thank you for joining us today. As a sign of care for one another, it is ESSENTIAL that you abide by these health safety protocols:

- Please wear your mask or other facial covering at any time when you are not in the pew with your family.
- Please stay six feet or more from people who do not live with you, except when you are receiving Holy Communion.
- When you come forward to receive Holy Communion, please stay six feet away from the person in front of you. When you approach the minister of Holy Communion, please remove your mask or facial covering and present one hand resting on the palm of the other. After receiving the Most Precious Body, please immediately replace your mask. These instructions are in keeping with the US bishops’ directives for reception of Holy Communion in the hand. Remember, only the priest is required to receive Holy Communion.
- Following the guidance of public health officials, we are not able to provide the Chalice or allow reception of the Most Precious Body by the tongue. Thank you for your understanding.
- As a reminder, the bishop has dispensed all from the Sunday obligation to attend Mass until June 30. If you are ill, vulnerable to COVID-19, or are concerned about being in public, please do not come to Mass. We encourage you to participate in Mass via the Internet, TV or radio.

Thank you for your kindness and patience.

Together, we can save lives.

Please continue to pray for one another.
