

The Ann Sherman-Skiba Coastal Carolina United Nations Association Scholarship was created in honor of Ann Sherman-Skiba, a friend to UNCW and a member of the Board of the Coastal Carolina United Nations Association. This merit-based scholarship is to be granted annually in the amount of $500 to support one student who is actively engaged in international topics or studies, either on the high school or university level. Previous recipients are not eligible to apply for this scholarship. Interested students are invited to submit, by October 1, an application, essay, and (unofficial) transcript to: Amanda Boomershine, President, Coastal Carolina UNA, boomershinea@gmail.com.

Name: _____ UNCW ID: _____ (if applicable)

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

School: _____ Expected graduation: _____

Major(s) / Minor(s): _____ (if applicable)

Please list the ways in which you are involved with the study of international/global topics and/or the UN.

Please include a brief statement of your financial need for this scholarship.

Essay: Attach a brief essay on what international studies and/or the United Nations mean to you.

Transcript: Remember to include a transcript in your application. This can be an unofficial copy.