REVELATION IS COMING

Can you see it? Can you feel it? Momentum is building. This is more than a desire we are wanting to see in our lives. It is not just something we would like to come to pass. Those I am writing to have gone beyond that place. How many people have desires that are unfulfilled? That is because what they want has never become more than just a wish. However, I am addressing those who have settled in their hearts and minds that what they hope to be and do will become reality. God has been inspiring and directing this future. They already have been acting upon it. Is that not what creates the momentum? This is what has been happening. At this stage the conditions are right for an unveiling. If I am talking about you, then get ready for revelation. It is coming and the momentum will increase propelling you forward. Let's go:

Genesis 28:11-17 ESV And he came to a certain place and stayed there that night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place to sleep. (12) And he dreamed, and behold, there was a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven. And behold, the angels of God were ascending and descending on it! (13) And behold, the LORD stood above it and said, "I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac. The land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring. (14) Your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south, and in you and your offspring shall all the families of the earth be blessed. (15) Behold, I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land. For I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you." (16) Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said, "Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it." (17) And he was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."

- 1. You have come to a place of revelation. Jacob had an unquenchable desire within himself to be somebody. He appears to have been born with it. His twin brother got out of the womb first but not without Jacob grasping his heel trying to catch up. The rest of his life up until this moment demonstrates this intense hunger to be important. He then finds himself journeying to the same place where his grandfather Abraham went before him, Luz. He did not realize that he had entered into a place of revelation. God had spoken there before. Why did he enter such a place? (The rest of these points I will put in the second person because this not just Jacob's story. It is yours!) It is a divine principle that he tapped into. You can too. Embracing the same mentality he did concerning your life attracts revelation. You set the stage for Him to show you important things that you need to know. God knows you need His input, but He is waiting for something else.
- 2. You rest from your labor. Jacob had to stop running and take some time to rest. That means you stop trying to make it happen on your own. You trust God to reveal His plan to you. Learn to rest.
- 3. You then see what is going on in the spiritual realm. That is exactly what He does. He opens your spiritual eyes to see what is really happening. You will be able to see that He is working mightily on your behalf. It will be made clear to you what your next step should be in order to fulfill the purpose that burns within you.
- 4. Your future is confirmed. He allows you to perceive that you were on the right track expecting greatness. That is already how He sees you as someone significant. No, you have not done most of it yet, but you will as long as you stay in faith and stay connected to Him. This is what is coming to you. Are you ready for it?
