

Dear Sir or Madam,

Throughout the course of 2018 Shannon Green has managed marketing and promotion for Oregon Helicopters. I have worked closely with Shannon during that period and have been consistently impressed by her organizational abilities, enthusiasm, creative capacity and work ethic.

She handled all aspects of our marketing efforts from graphic design, to social media campaigns, to negotiating contracts with advertisers, to arranging cross-promotional partnerships with local media organizations and businesses.

Since Shannon started working with Oregon Helicopters annual revenues have more than doubled and visits to the company's website have increased several hundred percent. Most importantly she has been able to adapt to the realities of a start-up business, finding unorthodox and unconventional ways to maximize a small marketing budget that achieves results.

I am grateful for the opportunity to work with Shannon and can say without reservation that her work and skill set has benefitted Oregon Helicopters.

Sincerely,

Robert Walker
