Stewardship Reflection

“Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared...” Nehemiah 8:10

In this passage, there is a message that God does not forbid us from enjoying good things in life. It is OK to be happy, but, God expects us to be grateful and to share our blessings with those in need – and not expect anything in return.

Today is the Day

Ezra reminds the people that the word of the Lord is supposed to be good news. He tells them to celebrate this day as a new opportunity, and not mourn it as a death sentence. Ezra calls the moment of decision holy, because in it is the full measure of the power of God. God will be their strength. God is Lord of the impossible. The people don't have to conform to their true identity all at once. All they need to do is take the first step and grab onto the word of life.

When Jesus presents the scripture to the people of his day, he is offering them an even better opportunity. In this hour, Jesus says, the word becomes flesh right before your eyes! This is the same hour in which we stand right now. Today's the day, now is the acceptable time, we have nothing else to wait for and not a moment to lose. If we aren't the people we are called to be, then we cannot afford to wait till tomorrow to become those people. The Spirit of the Lord is ready, and if we're bound for change, we're in the right place at the perfect time!
