

Reading Group Guide for Freedom's Price
by Christine Johnson

(Spoiler alert—these questions assume you've already read the book)

1. Catherine makes a bold decision to journey to America. Do you think she had other options? Why or why not? Do you agree with her choice?
2. Have you ever made a decision that others questioned? What was the result? Did you feel led by God to make that choice? Explain.
3. Tom nurses a desire for vengeance for ten years. What can happen to a person who holds on to blame and resentment for long periods of time? How can someone overcome life-changing harm?
4. Catherine refuses Elizabeth's hospitality until she has no other alternatives. Some of us find giving easier than receiving. Why is it so difficult to receive?
5. After Tom recovers from his injury, he lingers at Elizabeth's house. Why do you think he did so?
6. Journeying far from home was a risky venture in the 1850s. Have you ever made a long journey? For what purpose? If there was risk involved, how did you handle it?
7. Tom instantly knows DeMornay can't be trusted, whereas Catherine tries to believe the man even though her instincts tell her otherwise. Have you ever been in a situation where your instincts told you evil was present? Explain.
8. Aurelia makes a courageous choice at the end. Was that her only option? Do you think she expected to make such an extreme sacrifice? Why or why not?
