From the Pastoral Associate: Five important things: 1) Today is Pentecost. We celebrate the full outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the Church. We also pray to the Father in the name of Jesus, to pour out even more of the Holy Spirit upon us today, so that we can better do God's will. 2) This Pentecost at St. Michael's Mass, Kyle Johnson who is already a Baptized Christian from another denomination, will join ("come into full communion" is the churchy language) with the Catholic Church, by being Confirmed and receiving his first Eucharist. Usually in the R.C.I.A. process this is done at the Easter Vigil; however, with permission of the Bishop, it can be done at other times in the year. 3) Please remember the people who died defending our country. 4) Next Sunday Father Popp will celebrate his 40th anniversary of being a priest and celebrate his retirement from full-time service. Let us all join in the celebration. 5) Two weeks from now we will celebrate with Leo Wehseler his ordination to the Diaconate. Pronunciation tip --> Leo is becoming a Permanent Deacon (dee con) but it is his Diaconate (dee ack on it) Ordination. We have got a lot of celebrating to do. Let us enjoy the gifts that God has given us and give praise and thanks to God. ~ Michael Pekar
