We are right now working with writers to adapt the novel to a Feature-Length, History-Making, '4-D' Motion Picture, the first of which everyone involved, expects to be a Multi-Picture Franchise Blockbuster, generating massive revenues for our Company and Shareholders.

With the potential to solicit curiosity from even non-movie goers, the 'Necroscope 4-D' Franchise is anticipated to produce considerable profits for Evolving Pictures Entertainment Shareholders, while leading our Family and Friends to Long-term Wealth.

Harry Keogh (born Harry Snaith) is born with the ability to speak to the dead.

As he grows up and his power manifests itself, he befriends the dead. From them he learns that death is not the end, that although the body dies – the mind goes on, and the dead continue to improve and expand in death what they loved in life. From him, the once silent Great Majority learns to communicate amongst themselves, and love him for it. In turn, they offer him their knowledge: while at school, a deceased math teacher helps him with his developing mathematics talent and an ex-army sergeant teacher imparts self-defense skills.

As the years go by, he has recurring dreams about his mother, dead after an apparent ice-skating accident but in reality murdered by her husband and Harry's stepfather Victor Shukshin. Shukshin is a psychic sensitive, a defector sleeper agent planted in England by the Soviet E-Branch. In his self-appointed mission to avenge his mother's death, Harry is dragged into a web of espionage involving ESP agencies.

Evolving Pictures Entertainment is also in the Development stages of the 'Necroscope' Television Series'.
