MIDDLE AMANA SANITARY SEWER DISTRICT NOTICE

Recently, the Middle Amana Sanitary Sewer District was damaged by "flushable" wipes getting caught in our pumps. Please!! DO NOT flush wipes of any kind. Even those wipes labeled as "flushable" are not compatible with sanitary sewer systems and must not be placed into the sanitary sewer system through toilets or drains. Damage caused by the wipes is expensive and will ultimately impact rates. Flushing wipes and similar items can also clog residential lines and cause serious damage to your home.

Thank You,

AMANA NEWS AND NOTES

Voter Information for Nov. 3 Election Day

The general election will be Tuesday, Nov. 3. Polls in the state of Iowa will be open from 7 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Voters should be prepared to wait a little longer to vote than during previous elections as per the following statement made October 3 by Iowa County Auditor Jessica Stohlmann. As she noted in a press release from her office, "Due to the current COVID 19 pandemic, some polling places will be combined and there will be a limited number of precinct election officials serving at the polls. This will cause voters to wait longer at the polling place to cast your ballots."

You must provide a photo ID to vote. If you have recently changed addresses please also bring proof of your new address such as a utility bill. Yes, you may register to vote on election day but you must provide ID and proof of residence to register. Anyone who cannot show an ID may have their identity attested to by another register voter in the precinct who has proper ID.

Here are the polling places by precinct. Please note, some polling places have been combined this election due to the lack of volunteers. If you don't know your precinct go to the www.co.iowa.ia.us or call the auditor's office at 319-642-3923 if you have questions.

Monster and Ghouls on Parade Halloween in Amana; Take a Spooky Stroll Too!

On Halloween there's a little something new happening. You can dress up and join neighbors and kids in a Halloween parade in Amana (Ride your bike, pull your kids in a wagon, decorate your golf cart, hitch a ride or walk) on Main Street Saturday at 4 p.m.

Some of our very favorite "hags" will be judging the costumes with prizes awarded so dress up to win. The parade will start at the Hotel Millwright near the Millrace bridge and go straight west up our Main Street to the Amana Heritage Museum. It won't be heading round on the "backstreet."

Then join the Amana Heritage Society with your guide Jon Childers on a "creepy evening stroll" at 5 p.m. Halloween. Walk the streets of Main Amana as you hear tell of odd happenings, historical facts and little bit of whimsical folklore of the spine tingling variety. Cost is $10 to benefit the Amana Heritage Society.

Also happening this weekend – a "spooky sampling stroll" featuring our local wineries and eateries. Both Saturday and Sunday plus some of our merchants will be offering uniquely odd Halloween games of skill and pure luck.

It's Official: Hotel Millwright Ribbon Cutting

The ribbon has been cut and Amana's newest business in its oldest industrial building is officially open. Hotel Millwright held a grand opening ceremony Wednesday, Oct. 21 with members of the media and officials from the state and county in attendance.

Speaking at the event held due to rainy weather in the Merino Loft on the second floor of the weaving building, was Amana Society Director of Marketing and Retail operations, Jeff Poppenhagen, Amana Society President Greg Luerkens and Howard Hagen, Amana Society, Board of Directors chairman. FEATHERS IN THE WIND

It was the late 1950's and the fourth, fifth and sixth grade class teachers along with the music teacher decided to have a musical. The name of this musical was, "Tom Sawyer" and we were all going to be part of it no matter how bad our singing voices were.

The leads were Bob Zuber as Tom and Marianne Moershel as Becky Thatcher.

Naturally all the girls developed an instant "crush" on Bob who (in our eyes) could do not wrong and had the most beautiful voice in the whole world. The boys could have cared less about any of the girls.

We seemed to practice constantly for what would only be one performance to our parents who, of course, would all come and applaud our efforts since they just knew we were destined for stardom.

I was cast in a choir of girls which is another way of saying I could neither dance or sing well and the teachers hoped I would be drowned out by the rest of group.

We were told to look for some old-fashioned clothes to wear as our costumes. I would forget about that small detail until almost the last day when I just happened to mention it to my mother who rushed down to ask my Oma if she had any old clothes left from the communal era. Not only did she have a whole closet full of clothes (one that I actually fit into), but some that I was allowed to take with me to school for those girls who did not have the right dresses.

The song we sang was one that I remember to this day and still wonder what the meaning of it was. Perhaps you can explain it to me.

"Pretty little calico,
Nicest dress I ever wore.
Now I feel proud,
In any crowd.

Oh, I don't care for silk or lace,
But gingham seems to MATCH MY FACE!
Pretty little calico."

Now come on! Think about how calico can match anyone's face unless they have a bad case of acne.

The only other thing I was told about was that there was a square dance where the Mayor of East was paired up with boy that would one would one day become her husband.

It seems they were at the lip of the stage and he got rather carried with the dance and nearly tossed her off the stage as they twirled around. She never did let him forget that.

We would go on and do at least two more plays.

OBITUARY

Lillian M. Moessner, age 89, of Amana, passed away Wednesday, October 21, 2020, at Colonial Manor of Amana. A private family grave side service will be held on Saturday, October 31, 2020 at the South Amana Cemetery, South Amana. Kloster Funeral Home, Marengo, is assisting the family with arrangements. Memorials may be directed to the First Presbyterian Church, Cedar Rapids.

Lillian is survived by her daughters, Mary (Grant) Case, of Atlanta, Marti (Mark) Marz, of Cedar Rapids, and Becky (Bill) Roark, of Springfield, Missouri; seven grandchildren, Laura (Keith) Simmonds, Emily (Jay) Whiten, Andrew (Stephanie Campbell) Marz, Sarah (Gino) DiGioia, Amanda (Keith) Davis, Tim (Emily Callen) Roark, and Kelly (Chris) Koehn; six great grandchildren, Daniel and Anna Simmonds, Jackson Whiten, Nolan Davis, Daphne DiGioia and Jacob Marz; a sister-in-law, Katie Berger of Middle Amana; four nephews and six nieces.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 69 years, Harold, her parents, Martin and Henrietta (Bopp) Berger; sisters, Doris Trumpold and Rose Marie Lortz; brothers-in-law John Trumpold, George Trimpe, Harlan Lortz, Arnold Moessner and Ray Berger; sisters-in-law Lucille Moessner and Betty Moessner; her parents-in-law Adolph and Lina Moessner; and a niece, Delielah Moffitt.

Lillian was born November 28, 1930, in South Amana. She graduated in 1948 from Amana High School and in 1951 from the College of Nursing at the U. of Iowa. She married Harold on December 20, 1950 in Iowa City. They raised their three daughters in Amana. Then they lived in North Liberty, Des Moines and Huntsville, Alabama while Harold taught in Family Practice Residency Programs.

Lillian's first jobs included detasseling, weeding bean fields and waitressing. As a young mother, she worked as a nurse at U. of Iowa Hospitals. She volunteered in hospice, for the American Cancer Society, and was very involved at Church. She knit baby booties and caps for St. Lukes Hospital. But Lillian named being an at-home mom as her greatest accomplishment in life. She was a wonderful mother and grandmother.

In retirement, Lillian and Harold moved to Cedar Rapids. They enjoyed a number of years wintering in Ft. Meyers Beach, Florida. They were lifelong fans of the Iowa Hawkeye athletic teams and the Chicago Cubs. Lillian was a loving person with a servant's heart for others. Talking with babies always tickled her. She was very proud of all of the accomplishments of her family. Most importantly, she was thankful for God's faithfulness throughout her life.

The family would like to express their deepest appreciation to the brave, dedicated and loving staff at Colonial Manor Nursing Home and Lakeview Assisted Living. We are thankful that she is free a last and is herself again heaven with Jesus Christ whom she loved.
