

LLOYD D. PRIME

1901 - 1994

Lloyd D. Prime, 94 of Akron, passed away early Sunday morning, May 29, 1994 at Tendercare nursing facility, Caro, after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Prime was born April 25, 1901 in Unionville and lived most of his young adult and his adult life in the Unionville/Akron area. He married the former Lulu Mae Horst in Toledo, OH December 1, 1925. She predeceased him September 4, 1968.

He was employed by Dow Chemical Co. during WWII, then returned to Akron where he operated a service station until his retirement. He was a member of Akron United Methodist Church, and upon retiring, became an avid golfer.

Surviving are a son and daughter-in-law, Richard D. (Pita) Prime, Bay City; a daughter and son-in-law, Barbara (William) DeWald, Akron, one brother, Cecil Prime, Burton, six grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Preceding him in death besides his wife Lulu was one brother, George and a sister, Hazel.

Funeral service took place Wednesday, June 1 from Briggs-Trenery Funeral Home in Akron, with interment in Akron Demorest Cemetery. The Rev. Wayne Jenson officiated.

Those wishing memorials may consider Akron United Methodist Church or charity of choice.