DEATH THREATS • FINISHED AMAZON OUTREACH • JUL 16

YVOTTE BAPTISM

Arriving at our last base of civilization, we met unsettled residents informing us of a fresh guerilla uprising close by. There were rumors of death threats by rebel forces and concerned residents secretly introduced us to a released NGO hostage who was to flee the area on the next plane. Elsewhere in town, the military guard also warned of the looming danger and an acquaintance aggravated the alarm and with hushed voice, elaborated on the disturbance upriver.

In spite of feeling stunned, I had inner peace. We listened to God and recalled; Psalm 91:7 "..., but it will not come near you."

We left the next morning by speed boat and it was fantastic as we travelled with great peace to our first tribe with no experience of menacing approaches by strange and unwanted groups. We stayed some days and at night performed the JESUS drama, played and sang gospel songs, dished out Bibles and the JESUS movie. In both tribes many gave their hearts to JESUS, were miraculously healed in the name of JESUS, and out of conviction were baptized, including a Chief.

Praise Jesus, we were able to give Bibles to each of the new converts and did basic discipling with them, showing how to seek God in their everyday lives through the Word and prayer. What touched us deeply were the responses of both chiefs, resonating the importance of what we came to do in the lives of their people. Both couldn't stop saying how wonderful it was, expressing the depth of success and life changing effect it had on all!

One lady, who had been deaf for five years, received her hearing and had herself baptized.

One chief's wife received healing from severe pain in her pregnant womb and had herself baptized. But two of many miracles. Praise JESUS!

In our town of departure, we did lots of street ministry distributing JESUS Bible tracts and acquainting ourselves with the people.

MAKE DISCIPLES WITH JESUS

He who has begun a good work in you will surely complete it ... - Phil 1:6.

Matt 28.18-20, "Go and make disciples," is clear, yet how is not always obvious, particularly when dealing with strangers one might never see again. This illustration from the Amazon Jungle might help clear things up for you.

Rosa, the wife of one of the chiefs, almost never heard the name of JESUS. Steeped in tradition, her first child, to whom she gave birth at the age of 12, was 20 before Rosa heard of JESUS maybe in a Catholic context - followed by nothing else, until two years later when our group arrived at their village, this January.

During this visit, she heard and saw the Good News portrayed. Excitedly she made a public declaration of her decision to follow Jesus. And then nothing else followed, until July, when our group returned to her village. What a joyful encounter she had with God! Having been instantly healed from pregnancy complications, she chose to be baptized. Her family now owns a Bible, and although she can't read, her son will to read to her. And Jesus, through His Spirit, promised to be her personal tutor. (1Jn 2.27)

HEIDI PLAYING SOCCER WITH YOUTH

This doesn't leave us uninvolved. We continue to pray for Rosa's growth and God willing, will visit them again. The One who moved mountains to get us there can also direct others.

REMEMBER: You are a co-worker with JESUS, who promised never to leave you. As "it takes a village to raise a child," so it takes a team to disciple a person – start getting involved today!
