PRESCHOOL RUMMAGE SALE FOR EDUCATION

If you are wondering where to store the patio furniture, cleaning out the garage, basement, or attic, getting ready to move, or want to get rid of those clothes you haven't worn all summer, please consider donating to the Preschool's Rummage Sale for Education on October 10 and 11. Booth rentals are also available. If interested in renting a booth, contact the church office.

You may bring your items to the church and place them in the northwest corner of the fellowship hall. Please do not put any items on the stage. Any items that do not sell will be donated to local charities. Please be sure that things are in good condition and clean when you bring them in. Calvary Lutheran Preschool appreciates your support for our fundraiser and the work that we do with children.

DONATION DAY - GENERATIONS OF GIVING

The Seminary Guild's 80th Donation Day at Concordia Theological Seminary (CTSFW), Fort Wayne, is Tuesday, October 8. Donation Day precedes the formation of the Seminary Guild by many years, but is directly responsible for it. Join the women of the Seminary Guild for this annual tradition of giving to the Seminary's Food & Clothing Co-op. The day features the presentation of LWML mission grants, tours of the co-ops, lunch, keynote speaker Lance C. Hoffman, and also serves as an excellent time to drop off food or clothing items.

A sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board. We will be carpooling, leaving from Calvary around 7:30 a.m. If you have any questions, please contact Barb Cole.

Dry and canned food items, toilet paper, paper towels, personal hygiene items, health care products and disposable diapers are always welcome. There is always a need for new or clean used clothing in good repair for all members of the family, and a great need of men's professional, dress clothes and office-casual clothes. Additionally, monetary donations are used to purchase food at low cost through local food banks.

If distance prevents your presence, join us in prayer, in support, or as an associate member of the Guild. You can learn more about their work at www.ctsfw.edu/SemGuild.

GREAT LITTLE FAITH (Luke 17:1-10)

The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!” Luke 17:5

In His answer to their request Jesus is making a couple of powerful and important points. First He makes the important point that the size of the Apostles faith is not as important as they might think. Jesus uses the tiny mustard seed to illustrate the Apostles’ faith, and in so doing He communicates that a “tiny” faith is sufficient to transplant a tree into the sea! Clearly we should not be concerned about measuring our faith, for its supposed size is not what is important. As soon as we begin to try to measure faith—either in ourselves or in others—we run the danger of making faith into some sort of personal quality or action.

A Christian’s faith only has importance and is only great because of its object. This—that the object of our faith is what is important—is a second powerful point being made by Jesus’ answer, and it is magnified by the entire Bible. Throughout Scripture, and perhaps especially in the Gospel of John, we observe an omnipresent discussion about believing in Jesus. He is the object of the Christian’s faith, and He alone is what gives faith value. The tiny “mustard seed” of faith is great only because it clings to Jesus Christ. It boasts not in itself but in its object—The Son of God, crucified and risen for mankind.

Ultimately the Apostles would learn to confess no faith in themselves, nor in their gifts, nor in their strengths—but only in Christ, crucified and risen. Theirs—and ours—is a great little faith; great because it trusts the Greatest One, and little, because it knows it must not nor cannot cling to nor boast in itself.
