

PLUMAS-SIERRA CATTLEWOMEN

DATE: 1/10/2022

Dear Graduating Senior,

The Plumas-Sierra Cattle Women are deeply committed to encouraging our local young men and women to become active participants in the ranching and farming industry.

The Scholarships offered each year are designed to encourage graduating seniors to major in curriculum related to Agriculture. Agricultural science includes but is not limited to: Forest Ecology, Pre-veterinary sciences, agricultural economics, rangeland ecology, animal husbandry, and environmental studies directed toward agricultural and rangeland solutions.

The Scholarship is for graduating seniors who are from a farm or ranching family or seniors who have substantially participated in agriculturally related activities. If the qualifications are met, other career goals may be considered. In the future, we hope that the background experiences in agricultural will keep you connected in some way to the farming and ranching community.

IMPORTANT: You must be an advocated for yourself. You have been diligent with your efforts and should be proud of what you have achieved for scholarship consideration.

APPLICATION MUST BE POSTMARKED BEFORE OR BY APRIL 8. NO LATE APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

After the applications are reviewed, about the middle of May, those who meet the criteria will be scheduled for an interview with the Scholarship Committee.

Submit your applications to:

Kathleen Goicoechea or Karen Rickman
