

Egyptian Theatre welcomes Home Free back for Timeless World Tour

The Egyptian Theatre in Downtown DeKalb is excited to announce Home Free will be returning this November as part of their Timeless World Tour. Don't miss this exciting new show on Thursday, November 8 at 8 PM.

After a sold out show last year, the all vocal (a cappella) country music sensation Home Free is bringing Nashville country standards and country-dipped pop hits back to the Egyptian. The band comes to town on the heels of their most recent full-length album release, TIMELESS, bringing with them new music and new humor every night.

The audience can expect exciting new music and new stylings, plus country hits like Maren Morris' "My Church", pop slams like Shakira's "Try Everything", and fan favorite classics like the calypso-infused arrangement of Johnny Cash's "Ring of Fire."

Tickets start as low as $35 and go on sale to Friends of the Egyptian on Wednesday, July 25 at 10 AM and to the general public on Friday, July 27 at 10 AM. For tickets and more information please visit www.egyptiantheatre.org or call 815-758-1215.

Show also offers two levels of limited special meet and greet tickets which include a question and answer session with the band, a private performance as well as priority seating along with many more perks.

The Egyptian Theatre located at 135 N. 2nd Street in Downtown DeKalb, IL is owned and operated by Preservation of Egyptian Theatre, Inc. a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Annual support provided by First National Bank, Northwestern Medicine, Shaw Media, and Tapa La Luna.
