

EUROPEAN MOBILITY & TRAINING

Because education is not what it used to be

ABOUT US

Irish Creative Training & Innovative Development Center is an Irish-based consultancy. We deliver a variety of customized programs and trainings for a wide range of clients, both in Ireland and internationally.

Our Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET) programs help learners to acquire skills, knowledge and attitudes needed to enter the world of work. We offer a customized interactive learning experience, getting participants to do creative work rather than sitting and listening to experts talk about it; to gather professional experience by direct contact with companies and professionals in learning by doing in real life settings.

I have learned from my
“
ICT IDC mentors
the value of tolerance,
patience and trust in business.

From weakness to strength, from grass to grace and from nothing to something.

The knowledge they have imparted upon me has been a great asset
throughout my career.”
