NOTES

1. TRAINING (1st Session) – NSCC and NLCC will review line heaving and conduct hands on practice.
2. TRAINING (2nd Session) – NSCC and NLCC will continue line heaving and practice seamanship challenge competition topics in need of additional practice.
3. DRILL – The drill training and practice session will focus on the basic techniques of facing movements, positions, and maintaining cadence and alignment. Once the unit has achieved consistency in their basic technique execution and assessed by command staff, advanced techniques will be added to the drill practice sessions. All cadets will receive a copy of the drill PQS list.
4. COLOR GUARD- The color guard team will practice under the guidance of the color guard captain. Members of the color guard team are expected to attend a minimum of two Monday practice sessions to remain on the color guard team.
5. CORRESPONDENCE COURSE TESTING- Any NSCC or NLCC Cadet that is eligible and prepared to test may participate in the testing session. All assignments must be completed and graded prior to participation.

This is the section lists all of the notes and critical information for the drill events, such as class topics.
