For public safety, vehicles (except for parade participants) will not be allowed in the area during the event. Vendors will be allowed 30 minutes to unload their vehicles and remove them from the street. Do not unload from the center of the street, as it must remain clear in case of an emergency. If you need to remove or bring anything in during the event it must be moved by hand. Please ask at the Event Booth if you need assistance.
- Vehicles will NOT be allowed to enter the event area after 8:30 am. At the discretion of event staff, vendors who arrive late may be allowed to set up their booth, but must bring ALL materials and supplies in by hand or on non-motorized carts. If setting up the booth is deemed hazardous or otherwise risky, it will not be allowed. No refund will be made because of late arrivals.
- VENDOR CHECK OUT time is after the close of the event. Vendors are expected to remain open and to have someone in their booth at all times up to closing. You may tear down then and vehicles will be allowed back into the area at the discretion of the event staff. When the visitors have left. Do not arrive into the event area until you have been approved to do so.
- At the discretion of our staff, who are not electricians, we reserve the right to refuse or disconnect electrical service if there is any question of safety, or if the amount of current required/used is more than what is available.
- The sale of live animals is not allowed
- No raffles, except by local non-profit groups that have been approved to do so, will be allowed.
- Inappropriate personal conduct, rule violations or complaints from patrons as to misconduct during the event, may be grounds for removal by the event staff.
- There will be no refunds of event fees, for any reason. Cleaning deposits will be returned after inspection of the space has been made following proper check out procedure. Any cleaning deposits not collected the evening of the event, will be considered donations, with our thanks.
- The event will be held rain or shine. No refunds will be made due to weather.
