Are proud to present an illustrated lecture on

“Pyramids, temples and sun worship in Ancient Egypt”

- Date: Saturday, 5th November at 1.30 pm
The lecture lasts approximately 2 hours including a break.
- Speaker: Steve Cross: Geologist and Egyptologist
- Location: Lecture Theatre, Chesterfield Central Library New Beetwell Street, Chesterfield, Derbyshire, S40 1QN
- Admission: £3 Day-Visitor cost on the door, no membership required.
- Requirements: No previous knowledge required, our group is aimed at everyone with a love of ancient Egypt.
- Topic: “Pyramids, temples and sun worship in Ancient Egypt”

Why did the Egyptians build such an unusual shape as a pyramid?

Why was it so important to align a pyramid?

Why is almost every temple in Luxor aligned to the same thing?

Understanding Sun Worship is fundamental to understanding and answering these Questions.

The SSAE was formed in 1992, primarily for people in the Chesterfield, Nottingham and Derby areas with an interest in Ancient Egyptian history and art.

The SSAE local group is self-funded and depends on door sales. The group is based in Chesterfield and organise a programme of 6 lectures a year and social/ fundraising events.

The SSAE Main Society has 6 lectures a year (3 in Nottingham, 3 in Chesterfield), social events and trips in the UK and abroad and produces a Membership magazine (the Scribe) 4 times a year.
