

Exclusion

The schools may feel that exclusion is the consequence which needs to be used.

Fixed Term Exclusion	Pupils sent home and removed from the school for up to five days. Work will be provided. The pupils are the responsibility of the parents. The local governing body will not hold any type of review panel for fixed term exclusions administered by the Head teacher for exclusions that are 5 days or below. Pupils who are Looked After will receive education provision off site from day one of any exclusion. Pupils who are eligible for pupil premium funding will be considered for education provision off site from day one of any exclusion.
Exclusion over 6 days	Under the Education Act 2011 including The Schools Discipline Regulations (England) 2012, the school or, in the case of permanent exclusions, the school should provide educational provision. The local governing body will hold a review panel of any fixed term exclusion that is 15 days in one term or if a number of exclusions total 15 days or over in one term.
Permanent Exclusion	Prior to any decision being taken the head teacher must discuss an intention to permanently exclude with the Trust Chief Executive Officer. The Head teacher recommends to the local governing body's Discipline Committee that the pupil cannot return to school. Parents have a right to appeal, if the local governing body's Discipline Committee upholds the head teacher's decision.
Managed move	Pupils who receive a fixed term exclusion will normally be reintegrated back into mainstream lessons. This will be clearly stated on the exclusion letter. Where pupils fail to rectify their behaviour or do not wish to conform to the positive ethos at the attended school, a "managed move," a fresh start, or a time out placement at the Pupil Referral Unit will be considered.
