Our general meeting this month is our annual fashion show at the Bali Hai! This will be our last "regular" meeting until September. This year our fashion show will again be showing off our very own Navajo Canyon ladies wearing fashions from Chico's! Our fashion show team headed by Sally Steele and Glenda Boerner will feature additional interchangeable fashions along with many new ideas for opportunity baskets. This is our major fundraiser with a percentage of the proceeds to make sure we purchase a trailer for the Action Track Chair. Navajo Canyon has been a major donor to purchase a Track Chair for a local wounded warrior. Thank you ladies for your support! RSVP to: ncrwf99@gmail.com

The San Diego Fair opens its gates this week! Navajo Canyon RWF once again will be helping register voters and inviting fair patrons to "Send a Message to the Military" by signing aprons. There will also be a Republican 2016 Presidential Straw Poll featuring an 8x10 photo of the Republican candidates and a large ballot box! If you did not sign up and you have time to help - please contact waskahwhelan@aol.com. Navajo Canyon will pay for your fair entrance and parking on the day you work the fair.

In July, our downtown club's guest speaker will be Nick Popaditch! He is a medically Retired U.S. Marine Corps Gunnery Sargent, a recipient of a Silver Star and Purple Heart and an author of Once a Marine: An Iraq War Tank Commander's Inspirational Memoir of Combat, Courage, and Recovery.

Navajo Canyon will be dark (no general meetings or newsletters) during the summer. Hopefully you will spend time with your friends and family and remember to educate everyone in a positive way. NCRWF will have some fun summer activities including Bunco in July and the San Diego Follies in August.

September starts our Navajo Canyon meetings at the La Mesa Brigantine with San Diego Councilmen Chris Cate and Scott Sherman. The Downtown meeting in September will feature local Nationally recognized Radio Talk Show Host Roger Hedgecock.

If you are not involved, it is time to get educated, socialize, and have fun with like-minded, friendly, active Republican Women!!

See you next week at our Fashion Show!!

Cathie Johns

July and August: No programs in summer.

September - San Diego City Councilmen, Scott Sherman and Chris Cate are going to catch us up on what is currently happening in San Diego.

October - Your help is needed for the La Mesa Oktoberfest. NCRWF will host the Republican booth. Plan on joining us at the event, and be part of the fun and excitement as we let people know what a great job the Republicans are doing at local, state, and federal level.

Gloria Harpenau

Congratulations Ladies – you are the greatest. You keep bringing us new members. We added two ladies Dara Hembury and Joan North last meeting. One of the qualifying objectives to achieve the Diamond Award is to increase our membership by at least one more person each year – WE DID IT thanks to all of you. Enjoy your summer and we will see you in September.

Rep. Peters Big Labor Problem

Politics may be the art of the possible, but sometimes it's about having the dexterity to get out of an impossible situation. We'll see if Rep. Scott Peters has it.

The San Diego Democrat is facing a hard decision: how to vote on the Trade Promotion Authority and, if that passes, the Trans-Pacific Partnership.

The president wants him to vote yes, and organized labor is threatening to end his tenure at two terms if he does.

Other Democrats who have not already announced their positions are in a similar squeeze. Depending on your point of view, entering the partnership with other Asia-Pacific nations would further bolster the U.S. economy through enhanced trade benefits, or kill jobs within our shores.

The national and local AFL-CIO have said they will take no prisoners among those Democrats who cross them on this.

On Wednesday the San Diego Labor Council took to Twitter to warn: "Our members just created a comte to find a candidate to run vs Scott Peters if he votes wrong on #TPP. #PrimaryPeters"

That same day Politico posted an extensive story about labor promising to spend big to defeat any Democrat who votes for the trade pact, not just in the primary, but in the general election as well. In other words, labor leaders in effect will back Republicans rather than their usual allies.

For those of you who couldn't join Voter Registration on May 20, you missed the unveiling of 'Lady Liberty" AND our awesome new banner (designed by our own Sally Steele!). We definitely caught the eye of the new citizens, and MANY of them wanted their pictures taken with the lovely lady.

Join us in June when Uncle Sam and Lady Liberty greet hundreds of new citizens, and help steer them to our fabulous GOP tent for voter registration. We have so much fun, you don't want to miss out!!

June is also the start of the San Diego County Fair. Navajo Canyon will be manning the GOP booth on June 7 and June 30. This year we will be conducting a straw poll, as well as voter registration. It will be fun and interesting to interact with the Fair goers and get their take on the GOP favorites.

New Citizens Ceremony: Wednesday, June 24 Golden Hall at SD Concourse

Parking is free after 9:30 at Horton Plaza. Trolley is easy from the east county. Take the green line to the orange line and exit at the Civic Center. Meet at the red tent by 10 am, then off to lunch or home by noon! Wear your Republican red and show the Dems our patriotic spirit and spunk!

Check the trolley schedule at sdmts.com

As always, contact me with any questions or suggestions. Hope to see you there!

Log Volunteer Hours

Diane Randolph

I thank everyone who gave me their guesstimate for their May volunteer hours but now I'd like to ask you for the actual figure. If you could please email me your May hours I would greatly appreciate it. My email address is diane.randolph@att.net.

We need your total political hours and your total community volunteer hours.

Political hours encompasses voter registration, working at Republican headquarters, fundraising, precinct walking, phone banks, communicating with representatives, general meeting, committee work, report presentations, SDCFRW/CFRW/NCRWF meetings, getting ready for those meeting, conventions, club fundraisers or getting ready for those fundraisers.

Community hours include the following: church, library, hospital, senior centers, homeless, schools, colleges, universities, non-profit organizations, military outreach, youth groups e.g. soccer, softball, basketball, etc.

Thank you so much and see you at the fashion show!

Again here is the info we need to capture: Date covered e.g. Month of April

Chaplain's Words of Inspiration — Ginny Wisley

Happy June! (could someone please tell me where January through May went???)

God Bless America

The Fashion Show will be our last meeting until September. What a great event to wind down the whirlwind of politics & get our second wind & start up again. The Club also has fun & fellowship planned for the summer: the fair, maybe a BUNCO party, who knows what other fun things could come up, but they are for relaxing & enjoying.

I found this little poem by A. C. Dixon in a book called "The Comfort of Rest and Reassurance: Inspiration from the Front Porch" compiled by Roy Lessin & Heather Solum:

Rest upon God with a quiet heart,
Let God take His time,
Confident that God's time is better than ours.
In this age of hurry,
We need such a rest of faith.

Our world is hurry, hurry.... What it should be is a bit of hurry, a lot of relax, a lot of breathe, a lot of friends. Yes, work is a necessity for most of us but now during the summer when so many clubs & meetings are "dark" my hope & prayer is that you take those hours that would have been devoted to the meetings or the club or the whatever it was & have that be "me" time, ladies. Make your life YOUR life! (this is going to be hard for me as well...just ask Rick!)

So until we meet again at a social event, or the September meeting, remember to take a moment to smell the flowers, pick some & make a bouquet, wiggle your toes & be thankful that you are alive.

God bless you all,

PS: as I mentioned at the meeting, feel free to contact me with any "Chaplain-y" type needs: prayers, a listening ear, etc...that is part of this job.

CALIFORNIA POLITICAL REVIEW

• Teachers Union Determined to Purge Koch Brothers from College Campuses — by Larry Sand

The National Education Association's mission to drive Charles and David Koch, the two wealthy philanthropist brothers from Kansas, into the sea is showing no signs of slowing down. According to its latest Labor Department filing, the nation's biggest union gifted $150,000 (up from a mere $100,000 the year before) to the American Bridge, a leftist hit-PAC whose mission is to annihilate every politico whose politics run to the right of the late Joe Stalin. http://www.capoliticalreview.com/top-stories/teachers-union-determined-to-purge-koch-brothers-from-college-campuses/

More Pain at the Pump — By Jon Coupal

Sacramento is about to launch a new attack in its ongoing war on drivers.

California's 48.6 cent gas tax already ranks second out of 50 states — the feds take another 18.4 cents — and when the hidden carbon tax, part of the cap-and-trade program, is factored in, our state leads the pack by a wide margin. But this is not nearly enough, according to the political class.

Sen. Jim Beall is building a coalition of both Democrats and Republicans in the Legislature to hike gas taxes along with vehicle license fees and registration. http://www.capoliticalreview.com/top-stories/more-pain-at-the-pump/

Yesterday, two articles appeared that took note of circumstances surrounding California's taxing and spending. As the most populated state in the union that is not too surprising. However, is the national attention a reflection of how the press sees some of the coming debates in next year's presidential contest?

On the surface, the news report in the Washington Times and the editorial in the Wall Street Journal seem centered on local California matters. But each has strains that echo in the national debate.

The Washington Times focused on the effort to change Proposition 13 by creating a "split roll" to tax business property differently than residential property.

• California is not as liberal as you might think — By James V. Lacy

The fact is, California is really not as liberal as the politicians it continues to elect. According to a little reported March, 2015 poll conducted by the Public Policy Institute of California ("PPIC"), a respected bi-partisan organization, an eye-popping plurality of 35% of Californians consider themselves to be "conservative", while 34% consider themselves to be "liberal", and 30% identify themselves as "middle-of-the-road."

Looked at another way, a huge majority of 65% of Californians identify themselves as center or right!
