Good Evening and welcome to the 2018 Valley Center Rodeo Queen Pageant!

Each year, young women between the ages of 5 to 27 come from all over the county to compete for the title of Valley Center Rodeo Queen, Jr Queen, Young Miss, and Little Miss. The pageant attracts young ladies interested in promoting the sport of rodeo and representing the Valley Center Stampede Rodeo that is held over the Memorial Day weekend in May. Not only do these women have to be knowledgeable in rodeo and current events, they have to be able to ride a horse extremely well.

Weeks before the actual competition, contestants are hard at work fine tuning all the skills that they will need in order to wear the crown of Valley Center Rodeo Queen, Jr Queen, Young Miss, and Little Miss. The Competition actually starts the Sunday before the pageant with personal Interviews with our panel of judges. Then the contestants take a written test that focuses on Rodeo Knowledge, Equine Science, Current Events and Valley Center History. On Pageant Day Contestants show off their Horsemanship Skills with a horsemanship pattern, Flag run, Queens Run, and short Interview Session with the Judges. Later that evening they will model a formal western style dress, give a short speech and answer 2-3 questions. For some contestants, it is their first time to model, speak in front of an audience or undergo an interview. The skills learned during pageant practices can be applied in real life situations as well, such as job interviews and classroom presentations.

The Valley Center Rodeo Queens are awarded such prizes as a custom western saddle and silver belt buckle, crown and numerous other prizes. They also have the privilege of using the coveted Valley Center Rodeo Queen chaps, which are passed down to the winner each year, to wear during rodeos and parades.

Thank You

2017 Valley Center Rodeo Queen

Hannah Dickerson

My name is Hannah Dickerson and I am very sad to say farewell as the 2017 Valley Center Rodeo Queen.

For the past year, I have had a blast representing the Valley Center Rodeo at local events and rodeos throughout Southern California. I had an amazing rein full of great memories and new experiences. I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has helped me along this journey, especially this year's queen court. Thank you for all your friendship and laughs these past few months. Mia, I feel blessed to have had the opportunity to watch you grow as a young woman since you won this title. You have grown into a confident, hard working and beautiful person. Thank you for being a friend and listening to me whether or not we are dressed as queens or just riding on trail. Gracelynn, thank you for always making me smile. You are truly a joy to be around. You work hard and you have a radiant smile. You will go far. Lastly, Kennedy, thank you for always making me laugh. You have become quite the raffle selling queen. I hope that you will continue to pursue horses as you grown up. Julie, my queen director, thank you for always keeping us on time and making sure we upheld our titles with the utmost pride and class. To my sponsors throughout the years, thank you for having faith in my abilities and supporting me year after year. To the community of Valley Center and the rodeo committee, it has been a pleasure working with you. I have learned so much from your devotion to the rodeo and hard work. Lastly, my parents, thank you for always making sure I get where I need to go and have all the tools I need to be successful.

This year has been an incredible experience and I am so grateful to have been apart of this court. Although I am sad to see my rein come to an end, I am looking forward to what the future has in store for me. I will be attending Palomar college in the fall with aspirations of eventually transferring to UC Santa Barbara to obtain a degree in Global Studies. I am excited to hand down my crown to the next young lady who will continue representing the Valley Center Rodeo as the 2018 Valley Center Rodeo Queen.

2017 Valley Center Rodeo Junior Queen Mia DiGiovanni

Good evening my name is Mia DiGiovanni, I am a 14 year old lifelong resident of Valley Center, and am proud to have served you this past year as your 2017 Valley Center Jr. Rodeo Queen. As I am saddened to be saying goodbye for now, I am also excited as I am opening new doors having competed a couple weeks ago for the 2018 Poway Rodeo Jr. Queen title. I'm so grateful to have been able to spend my first queen title representing my home town that I love so dearly. This year has helped me grow as a person in countless different areas, some including my social skills, riding skills, and I have made friendships that will last no less than a lifetime. But this incredible journey, it wouldn't have been the same without my court. Hannah, GraceLynn, and Kennedy have been my best friends this past year and there hasn't been a dull moment between us four. I appreciate each and every one of you and hope to queen again with you in the near future. To the one who kept all us ducks in a row, Julie. Your passion for teaching those around you the ways of the western lifestyle and helping us girls learn through the pageant process never ceases to impress and inspire me. Thank you for doing what you do, as none of us would be here without you. I'd also like to thank my parents, brothers, Bridgette LaHaye, Lisa Burkhard, Taya Harrington, Cat Davenport, Hannah and all my queens moms for always being there with a bobby pin, advice, and an open ear to anything I might have to say; and bless your heart because sometimes, it's a lot and also very pointless. To Scanlon Motorsports, San Pasqual Band of Mission Indians and all my other sponsors: thank you for having my back and believing in me. I couldn't have done it without all of you. I'm so excited to see who will be crowned tonight and I know you're going to have the time of your life. I wish you all luck.

2017 Valley Center Rodeo Young Miss

Grace Lynn Robinns

Holy smokes! It's hard to believe that an entire year has passed since I was crowned the 2017 Valley Center Rodeo Young Miss. I have enjoyed being an ambassador for the Valley Center Rodeo. I have loved my job doing parades, carrying sponsor flags, doing interviews, helping with mutton busting and the Challenged Children's Rodeos. I've also loved going to the meetings, selling raffle tickets at the local sundowners, signing autographs and teaching kids about the sport of rodeo. It has definitely been a year to remember.

I would like to thank some of my amazing rodeo family. I would like to thank Julie Picot, our director. For some reason you always make me smile and you have this kick of sass that makes you the best director ever! I mean you even make my mom happy to drive down to Valley Center, so thank you!

And Hannah, the best queen ever! Thank you for being a great role model and someone to look up to. I love you with all my heart!

Oh gosh, here we go with Mia. Well let me just say, when I think of you I think of us singing at the top of our lungs in Lisa's car on the way to Fiesta Island. Man, were we amazing. You seem to make everything bright and fun. Thanks for the pep talks, laughs and, well everything! I love you!

Kennedy, it seems just like yesterday that I was dragging you out of the arena. But now I look at you helping little kids and teaching about rodeo and it really shows how much you have grown. You were a great Little Miss and I'm sure you will be a great future queen. Love ya sista!

I would also like to thank the rodeo committee especially Madeline Wagner! Thank you for believing that I was a good rider and that I deserved to ride in the rodeo. It's really appreciated, and it was the best weekend of my life!

Lastly, I would like to thank my family. Mom, I don't even know where to start, I cannot believe that you dealt with me. I love you so much. The dictionary doesn't even have a word that describes how lucky I am to have you. Dad, Thanks for pulling up to horsemanship calling yourself pageant daddy! You really got the job done! To my Ma and Pappaw, I love you soooooo much. Thank you for sponsoring me what I needed! Love you.

Well it's time to wrap it up and say goodbye Valley Center Rodeo Young Miss. I am sure whoever gets this title will represent it with all their heart and love it like I did. So I'm brave enough to say goodbye, so hopefully life will open a new hello. Happy trails!

2017 Valley Center Rodeo Little Miss Kennedy Tarlton

My name is Kennedy Tarlton and it has been an honor this last year to be the 2017 Valley Center Stampede Rodeo Little Miss! What a ride it has been! I have learned so much about the sport of rodeo and have enjoyed going to all the rodeo's and especially our Valley Center Stampede Rodeo in May where I got to represent my home town. We got to ride in our local parade and many other parades around San Diego. It is fun to see even the youngest kids get so excited about rodeo and perhaps to be a future rodeo queen someday. I enjoyed going to all the other special events and Chamber sundowner's where we helped with raffles and different activities. We also got to do face painting at the Christmas in the Valley and all the money that we raised went to support those affected by the recent Lilac fire. I am so grateful for this amazing experience and have enjoyed getting to know the other queens in our court this year. Thank you Hannah, Mia, and Grace for showing me the ropes. I know that the 2018 queen court will be a great one as well! Good luck to all the contestants and most of all enjoy the journey! i would like to thank my family and my sponsors for the wonderful support they have been to me this past year. I would also like to thank Julie Picot for her dedication and support to all the queens. Thank you to the Rodeo Committee for all that you do for our rodeo. God bless!
