2016 FALL HARVEST FESTIVAL

Local Valley Farm hosts ‘Super Farmer Corn Maze’!

WHAT

Fall is upon us and this all-time favorite season is set to delight patrons with a home-grown heroic themed Corn Maze. Thousands of maze-goers trek the path of this popular Los Angeles attraction each year. Many collect the famous scout patches to commemorate their triumph.

Faster than a speeding honey bee! More powerful on his John Deere tractor! Able to leap corn rows at a single bound!... it's Super Farmer! Swagger with his straw hat and dashing smile, this home-grown super hero cultivates his powers by growing super food for the people of the world.

WHO

Forneris Farms, owned and operated by 3rd generation farmer John Forneris, is a genuine working farm. Over 50 years embraces the Farm's motto of 'Growing Greatness' as he cultivates local produce for community customers.

This old fashioned Farm Market, famous for its mouthwatering tomatoes, offers fresh picked produce seven days a week from March through December. Each October, Forneris hosts its annual Fall Harvest Festival with adored attractions. Farm fans will take a narrated tour of aboard the Forneris Farms Express: a tractor-pulled train ride. Explore the family Farm Frolic Area with fall-themed farm activities. Choose from the most beautiful of home-grown Pumpkins. Visit the Farm Market for fall décor and fresh picked produce. Enjoy live entertainment and refreshments on weekends during October. Forneris has partnered with The MAiZE Company to design the Corn Maze for 10 years. It has been a bountiful way to entice maze-goers "Get Lost" at the Farm.
