Bring Your Children To Mass?

MSGR. WILLIAM J. KING

When Jesus reprimanded the apostles for wanting to keep children away from Him (see Mt 19:14), He did not give an age or behavior requirement.

At the baptism of a child, parents and sponsors promise to teach their children the Catholic faith and "to bring them up according to the law of Christ and His Church." The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us, "The Sunday celebration of the Lord's Day and his Eucharist is at the heart of the Church's life" (No. 2177). This importance is shown in attendance at Mass and rest from labor, the first of the precepts of the Church.

The obligation to attend Mass is captured in canon law, which states, "On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Mass" (Canon 1247). The same canon goes on to note the duty to abstain from work on the Lord's day. As a law of the Church, the Sunday Mass obligation binds Catholics who are at least 7 years old and have the use of reason. However, since first reception of the Sacraments of Penance and the Eucharist are at or about age 7 in the United States, it seems that children should be well accustomed to attending and participating in the Mass prior to that age.

We are continuing to collect food donations for the Hurricane Food Bank and for the Springdale Elementary School

Over the next year, the Knights of Columbus pledge $5M in support of local pregnancy centers, maternity homes, and other organizations that give direct assistance to new mothers and their babies through our new initiative, Aid and Support After Pregnancy (ASAP).

To date, we are less than 45% to this goal. There is still more that needs to be done. If you have not yet made a gift, I ask for your prayerful consideration and support.

Saint Paul Catholic Center's SUMFALL PICNIC

On Saturday, September 17th, Saint Paul Catholic Center celebrated its SUMFALL (Summer-Fall) Picnic at Pioneer Park. The weather was perfect, food and desserts were tasty and plentiful, but most importantly, we had a great turnout. We all enjoyed the time we spent together and the camaraderie. It was an exceptionally blessed day.

Kudos to our Activities Group for organizing and providing their time and energy to make our picnic a super-pleasant experience for everyone! Thank you all so very, very much!!

"When we get back, I'm having you charged with mutiny."

★ My date asked me what I look for in a relationship? Apparently... "A way out" wasn't the right answer? ☺

★ My husband told me he still had the body of a Greek god. I had to explain to him that Buddha isn't Greek! ☺
