WELCOME TO THE 2022 IHMVCU SHOOTOUT

We are thrilled to be back and bigger this year. With the recent success of the IHMVCU shootout, we couldn't help but expand it to include more local programs. On the Illinois side, we welcome Mercer County, Riverdale, and Rockridge High Schools. Meanwhile, we have expanded Iowa to include West Liberty, Wilton, and Central DeWitt. These six teams add to our already valuable list of quality girls basketball programs giving us now a total of twenty teams.

Our title sponsor, IH Mississippi Valley Credit Union, truly stepped up last year. Although we were not able to play in 2021, they quietly helped donate to each school. This reiterates why they are the ideal sponsor of this event.

What an exciting day when we can offer ten games, showcasing twenty teams at two iconic locations. If you love girls basketball, as we do, this is your day. Bring it on!

IHMVCU MATCH-UP PREVIEWS

Carver Center - Augustana College

Game 1 - Davenport West vs. Mercer County - Time: 10:45 a.m.

Need to know: It has been a challenging start to the season for the Falcons. Besides playing without last year's leading scorer Kaitlyn Powell and a new coaching staff headed up by Brandon Krusey, West has faced four state-ranked teams in the opening month of the season. Sophomore Elizabeth Paustian has been the Falcons' top scorer so far at just more than 9 points per game. Mercer County senior Kiersten Cox was named to the all-tournament team at the ROWVA-Williamsfield/Ridgewood Thanksgiving Tournament earlier this season. The Golden Eagles picked up wins over Ridgewood, Bushnell-Prairie City, Stark County and Orion before Christmas. Six of the 11 players on Mercer County coach Katie Engwall's roster are sophomores.

Game 2 - Assumption vs. Annawan - Time: 12:30 p.m.

Need to know: Coming off a trip to the Iowa Class 3A state tournament last year, Assumption is state-ranked again this season behind the trio of senior Dawsen Dorsey, junior A.J. Schubert and sophomore Maddy Nigey. Those three account for more than 60% of the Knights' scoring. Coach Jake Timm's team collected a signature win before the holiday break, besting Mississippi Athletic Conference preseason favorite Central DeWitt by 14 points. Annawan coach Jason Burkiewicz has a mixture of youth and experience — six upperclassmen, four sophomores and a pair of freshmen. The Bravettes possess a solid inside-out attack with 6-foot center Cassidy Miller and sophomore guard Olivia Goodley. Annawan clipped Alleman by a point on Dec. 18.

Game 3 - Davenport Central vs. United Township - Time: 2:15 p.m.

Need to know: First-year coach Amara Burrage, who came from Des Moines Area Community College, has Central in the middle of the MAC pack after the opening month of action. The Blue Devils feature two double-digit scorers in seniors Aniah Smith and Adriauna Mayfield while Drake soccer recruit Addie Ford is among the better rebounders in the league. United Township has a quartet of sophomores making a significant impact on the floor with point guard Kaylie Pena, forward Tia Lewis, guard Ciara Hull and center Lorena Awou, all of whom have been in double figures at some point this season. Coach Carie Walker's team is under .500, but it has played Rock Island and Moline down to the wire in the first month of Big 6 Conference action.

Game 4 - Bettendorf vs. Sherrard - Time: 4 p.m.

Need to know: Frequently this season, Bettendorf's games have gone more than 32 minutes. Four of the Bulldogs' first five games went into overtime, including wins over Assumption and Davenport North. Despite a season-ending knee injury to junior Hattie Aanstad, Bettendorf has remained in the thick of the MAC race behind junior post Lillie Petersen (almost 15 points, 13 rebounds per game) and junior guard Faith Furness. Sherrard has four starters returning from last season's pandemic-plagued 8-2 season, led by four-year starter and returning all-conference performer Sydney Adamson. Two other seniors — guard Abi Gerdes and forward Charlotte Frere — are back along with junior forward Olivia Meskan for coach Doug Swanson's squad.

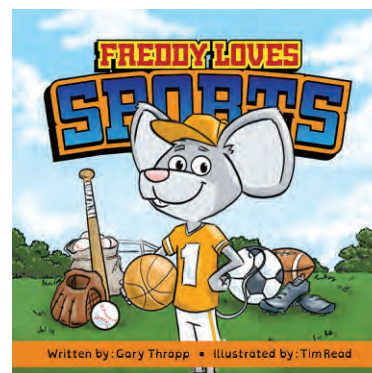

Game 5 - Pleasant Valley vs. Rock Island - Time: 5:45 p.m.

Need to know: With the exception of a loss at The Pit in Eldridge, Pleasant Valley conquered every challenge in the pre-Christmas portion of its schedule. Six-foot junior Halle Vice, averaging more than 19 points and 6 rebounds a game, has seen several Power 5 college programs show interest recently. Sophomore Jessie Clemons creates havoc for opponents with her 5-plus steals a game as PV leads the MAC in scoring defense. Rock Island coach Henry Hall has seen five girls on his team reach double-figure scoring in the opening month. Imari McDuffy is a four-year starter while junior Kayla Rice and senior Bri Stewart are among the top 10 in the Big 6 in scoring for conference games. Senior Emily Allison and junior Dane Robinson have had big moments as well.

Game 6 - North Scott vs. Geneseo - Time: 7:30 p.m.

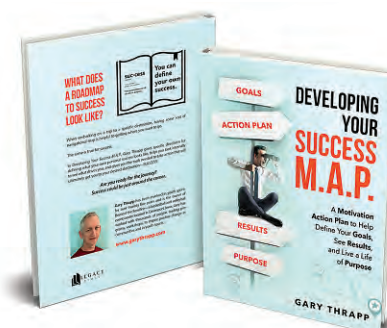

Need to know: When T.J. Case stepped aside last spring after leading three state championship teams, North Scott promoted Devvin Davis and the program has not fallen back. Even without a senior on the roster, the Lancers are ranked among the state's top 10 in 4A and are holding teams to less than 42 points per game. Junior Lauren Golinghorst is among the better interior players in the MAC, averaging more than 14 points and 7 rebounds a game. Ranked fourth in Illinois Class 3A, Geneseo did not drop a game before Christmas. Coach Scott Hardison's team had won 10 of its 12 games by double figures. The Maple Leafs have arguably the top player in the Quad-Cities with Providence College signee Kammie Ludwig. She's already had three games of 30 points or more this season.

Wharton Field House, Moline

Game 1 – Wilton vs. Riverdale – Time: 11:30 a.m.

Need to know: Wilton, which won six of its eight games before the holiday break, has one of the area's top players in senior and Wisconsin-Platteville volleyball commit Kelsey Drake. An all-stater in volleyball and basketball, Drake already has eclipsed 1,150 points for her career and is averaging more than 20 points a game this season. Ella Caffery, a Northwest Missouri State volleyball recruit, is also a double-digit scorer for coach Jake Souhrada's squad. Riverdale was undefeated last season in a pandemic-abbreviated campaign, but coach Jay Hatch's program was hit hard by graduation with the departures of all-conference players Lauren Lodico and Shae Hanrahan. The Rams have dropped three of their first four games in Three Rivers Conference play.

Game 2 – West Liberty vs. Rockridge – Time: 1:15 p.m.

Need to know: West Liberty is short on numbers but not on talent. After starting the season with just six girls, now eight on the roster, the Comets are ranked among the top 10 in Iowa Class 3A. West Liberty ran off six wins in its first seven games. Drake volleyball recruit Macy Daufeldt is the catalyst with 18 points and 7 rebounds per game, and the Hall sisters – Finley, Sailor and Pearson – are coach Matt Hoepfner's second, third and fourth scoring options. Rockridge coach Ryan McDonald has three starters back from last year's 8-4 squad. Kierney McDonald, coming off a stellar volleyball season, is a 6-foot-1 senior forward who was a unanimous all-conference player last season. Madison Heisch, second team all-Three Rivers West last season, is among the Rockets' top perimeter threats.

Game 3 – Davenport North vs. Alleman – Time: 3 p.m.

Need to know: Don't let the sub-.500 record fool you. North has dropped one-possession games to three state-ranked teams in Cedar Rapids Washington, North Scott and Central DeWitt. Freshman and Division I prospect Journey Houston has been exceptional for the Wildcats in the early stages of her high school career, averaging 19 points and almost 10 rebounds a game. Coach Paul Rucker has two other freshmen – Divine Bourrage and Damia Clark – either starting or in his rotation. Alleman, coached by Steve Ford, has made a significant leap since a 1-13 spring campaign. With seven wins before Dec. 24, the Pioneers have some talented young players as well with sophomores Clair Hulke and Audrey Erickson – both among the top 10 in scoring in Big 6 Conference games.

Game 4 – Central DeWitt vs. Moline – Time: 4:45 p.m.

Need to know: State-ranked and the MAC preseason favorite by the coaches, Central DeWitt is the only team in the IHMVU Shootout with two Division I basketball signees on its roster with Taylor Veach (Illinois State) and Allie Meadows (Western Illinois). They have accounted for more than 70% of Central DeWitt's scoring in the first eight games. Justin Shiltz, who coached the United Township girls at one point, is in his first year leading the Sabers. Moline has a new coach as well this season in Adrian Ritchie, who spent the last five years as an assistant under coach Sean Taylor's boys program. The Maroons have utilized their depth, but are led by seniors Kadence Tatum (an Augustana commit), Caroline Hazen and Bella Smith along with juniors Sam Veto and Paige Melton.

2022 PILLAR OF LIGHT HONOREES

James Hand

1993-present - DeWitt area youth sports programs.

Working with area youth

I started when my daughter wanted to play basketball in 5th grade. That was 28 years ago. I started coaching that team and then kept getting parents to ask me to coach their child from then on. I really do not know how many young people that I have coached but it has been quite a few. I have worked with many different coaches and it has been a great experience for sure. Coaching youth gives so much back and the greatest thing is coaching them and becoming lifelong friends with not only the athlete but also with their families. I cannot tell you how many families that I have coached their brother or sister or cousin. It is truly a gratifying experience and I love every minute of working with the kids of DeWitt.

Awards

I was voted into the Central DeWitt Hall of Fame. That was such a humbling experience for me as I was not sure I deserved that award but it was great sharing that moment with my family. I thank the Committee so much for that award and I will never forget that the award is from all the players that I have coached throughout the years.

Dedication

I started to coach as I said with my daughter but loved doing it so much I was so humbled that teams that did not have any of my kids on it asked me to help coach their teams. What you get back from young people who want to learn the game is more than you can imagine. The great thing is that when I see young people that I have coached I usually get a high five or hug and they jokingly say if they have children that they are waiting for me to coach their child. It is like nothing you can experience anywhere if you haven't taken part in helping with youth. They give back way more than you give them. Watching them grow in the game and then watching them use the skills we teach in life is one of the greatest feelings anyone can have.

Current

I am honored now to be the JV coach of Central Sabers and it so far has been an awesome experience. Working with older students now has been great and I look forward to watching them also grow. My main interest now is my 3 grandchildren who I love watching grow.

Inspiration

My Dad always said do what you love. Always give back with the talent you have. I always have tried to live that and I know that he would be happy with what I have done for the youth of the DeWitt area.

Someone talked him into helping coach with 5th and 6th grade boys, and he took it from there. It helps keep him going as he gets older. He enjoys being around the kids and making a difference both on and off the court.

Interests

He loves to bowl on Thursday nights, and play golf in his free time.
