

TEAM ROPING CLINIC

Ovid, Michigan

$250/two days with horse

$75 /day of groundwork/observation

“Successful roping is the result of good horsemanship combined with control and consistency. Often times, ropers just focus on their rope and not enough on their horse. I want you to focus on both and through this school will teach you how, working on using your horse’s full potential, along with your rope handling ability to make your roping more controlled and consistent.”
