July 10th – 14th, 2023 at 12:00pm-1:00pm

This year we are celebrating Miss Sarah's favorite princess – Princess Tiana. From a young age, Tiana knows that a dream is a little bit of magic and a lot of hard work. She dug deep and found the courage to keep on trying, despite the odds, because Tiana is a visionary who learned the joy of sharing good food with others from her father. She is focused and driven to achieve her goals, despite the many obstacles she faces.

Proper dress is a must. Students may wear dance, dress up or princess attire. They can bring their own royal princess attire or items to share with other dancers. (Please mark names on items)
