

THE VIETNAM 50TH COMMEMORATIVE GIFT

The Vietnam 50th Gift is available FREE to all Indiana Veterans who served during the Vietnam War years. The gift package will include the following:

A 160-page hardbound book:

“A Time To Honor: Stories of Duty, Service and Sacrifice”

A Feature DVD documentary:

“The Journey Home” After 50 Years

The Interactive eBook:

A digitized book with hundreds of additional pages of Indiana Veteran interviews, documents, letters, photos and videos. It will include many Veteran Service Organizations, memorials and important facts and figures. The expandable eBook will be downloadable and shareable.

The 50th Gift will also include digitized archives of Vietnam Era Division publications and magazines.

The Vietnam 50th Commemorative ‘Gift of Gratitude’ will be distributed nationwide. Indiana’s 50th Gift should be available in late 2016 or early 2017. The FREE Gift will be distributed by 501c3 non-profit organization Welcome Home Vietnam Veterans, Inc. #47-4809173. The Vietnam 50th Gift is made possible with national founding partners, public & private companies, organizations & sponsors. Donations from the community are necessary & greatly appreciated!

We invite all Hoosier Vietnam Veterans - and families of deceased Indiana Vietnam Veterans - who wore the uniform any time during 1955-1975, to submit their photos and personal stories to be included in this historic Indiana Bicentennial Legacy Project. These military stories of service will be permanently archived in the Library of Congress and made available at all Indiana public libraries and schools.
