Over 50 years ago Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. spoke these words that still ring true today.

The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience but where he stands at moments of challenge and controversy.

Life is often challenging and different struggles come our way. Solomon seemed to know that and gave us solid advice.

Proverbs 3:5-6
Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.

It is easy to tell others, but harder to do when we are the ones who are going through what we are going through. We must learn to trust God even in moments of controversy and challenge. If we trust God with the eternal destiny of our souls, we ought to be able to trust God with our temporary trepidation's.

What is God's purpose in our trials anyway?

2 Corinthians 4:17-18
17 For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, 18 as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.

As we trust God in our trials let us remember that God Loves us and his intention is for our good.

Romans 8:28
And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.

Keep trusting God!

Pastor Waddles
