

“After years of seeing miracle and magical things happen to children in a small structure on Millbrook then a beautiful castle on the hill; I decided I wanted to be a part of an organization that works to ensure those miracles and magical things continue to happen for future generations.” - Chellie