

Before entering the private sector, Sorin Dobircianu had a strong and distinguished career on Romanian Intelligence. However, he subsequently left this career on private grounds.

Sorin Dobircianu is a Ph. D. in Oil, Gas and Mines. He earned his degree from the Petroleum and Gas State University Romania. Upon completion of his studies, including environment German international certifications he was assigned to service in the above mentioned international areas of activities.

During his tenure on major international energy companies from all over and projects Mr Sorin Dobircianu developed significant experience in the areas of oil, gas, energy, political, operational management, as well as in the substance of consultancy and regulatory issues affecting international trade, energy policy, national defense and intelligence, telecommunications, financial services, and international relations.

Afterwards he spent more than 15 years in major groups as senior staff, advisor, manager, director and expert to various major international companies and groups.

Mr. Dobircianu provides strategic counsel to multinational corporations, domestic and foreign industry associations/chambers, and foreign national and state governments on all manner of issues related to markets development and access, political positioning, crisis management/avoidance, and issue management. In addition, he has developed and executed multi-state lobby and promotion campaigns on behalf of numerous multinational companies. Mr. Dobircianu was a principal advisor and expert of the leaderships of LukOil, Terra Active International, Eagle Group Irak, the political leadership of Irak, Generatia Industrial Group Russian Federation, Interecoheliogalaxy & Interecoheliogalactica Moscow, CIPROM, Petroluc, Ankom Germany, Petropus USA, Renocon-Hermeticos Germany, Lotus Petrol, Red Point Petroleum Group, I.P.I.P. Romania and expert of the Romanian Association for Petroleum and Gas Engineers..

Since that time, he has worked on many of the most challenging issues on the bilateral, Canada-the Russian Federation & Romania-the USA agenda on behalf of various state entities and institutions, Ministries, companies and industries. In the private sector, he served as strategic counsel and project coordinator for the most important projects with both the Romanian Association for Petroleum and Gas Engineers & the Petroleum and Gas University Romania and SOCAR Azerbaijan of which successfully closed. And the airport projects in Timisoara and Brasov.

Currently, Mr.Dobircianu is working extensively with numerous Canadian, Romanian and international interests in the public and private sectors in support of foreign capital investment within the country and the region. He successfully worked with different government on specific programs to improve efforts and efficiency.

As the representative for several private companies in the Middle East, the Caspian Sea Region, China, the Russian Federation, the USA and Europe, he has helped establish partnering agreements with multinational corporations, including those specializing in energy, strategy & politics, infrastructure, telecommunications, and television broadcasting / distribution. Furthermore, he is involved in the promotion of certain high-profile projects in the energy sector that will directly impact regional and global energy security.

In the past, Mr. Dobircianu has also served as a strategic counsel and expert to the various leaderships and/or ministers and others.

Thereafter, Sorin Dobircianu worked in various consulting firms for oil and gas projects and represented numerous high level boards and officials of the top companies internationally. Many of the projects in which Sorin Dobircianu played a leading role were widely covered in the Romanian and foreign mass media.

Sorin Dobircianu is one of the best known experts as manager of Renocon-Hermeticos Germany and currently Director of GSG Romania, Consultant of Petrodesign, Operations Director of EXPERT ENERGY Company and is actively engaged in professional and public work in and on behalf of many international energy & security projects. Sorin is very visible in the scientific research and educational works published and is one of the authors of a book entitled "The Management of Communication for business." These book presents legal, commercial, strategic and management issues, situations and approaches to solutions in plain, understandable language, for both students and trainers for doctorate degree. He was also awarded by the Army Academy Romania, the Naval Academy Romania, Royal Holloway University of London, British Council, The European University-Clermont-Ferrand France, The Federal Agency on Education & Sankt Petersburg University Russian Federation and also received the medal of Excellence in performance awarded by the Romanian Association of Petroleum and Gas Engineers, The Petroleum and Gas University, The Black Sea University & Foundation, Petrom & Expert Petroleum.