

Dr. Teresa D. Drummond Scholarship Application

Mission:

The National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc., Delaware Chapter (NC100BW-DE), advocates on behalf of Black women and girls through national and local actions and strategic alliances that promote leadership development and gender equity in the areas of health, education and economic empowerment.

The NC100BW-DE Scholarship Fund honors Dr. Teresa D. Drummond, a scholar devoted to national public service. Dr. Drummond served as the first Vice-President for the local Delaware Chapter. To date, NC100BW-DE has awarded more than $250,000 in scholarships.

Eligibility:

Scholarships are offered in three categories. Check the box that describes the category for which you are applying.

- High school senior that has been accepted into a technical trade, associate degree or undergraduate degree program.
- Matriculating student enrolled in a technical, associate, undergraduate, or graduate degree program.
- Non-traditional student who has been accepted into a technical, associate, undergraduate or graduate degree program (for example, a GED recipient; a person with a criminal history; an individual in recovery; someone with children; a person in the workforce returning to school; or someone who is not a recent high school graduate).

Previous NC100BW-DE Scholarship winners may apply but must select a new essay question.

Scholarships are awarded based on financial need and/or academic merit. You must check the box that describes the category for which you are applying:

- Academic Merit Only
- Financial Need and Academic Merit

SCHOLARSHIP DEADLINE IS JUNE 8, 2018
