The Legendary First Lady "Suga-T Bio

The Legendary Suga-T is a thirty-year Entertainment Veteran that had the best of both worlds growing up in her family record label SWI Records & raised as an only female of her five siblings, later developed as an executive and talent, eventually establishing one of the biggest joint venture deals, in history with Jive Records. This renaissance woman earned her brand helping pave the way for women in Hip Hop and was recently presented on VH1' Hip Hop Honors by The Legendary Queen Latifah as a West Coast Female Hip Hop Pioneer shortly after being featured on the TVOne's E40 Unsung segment highlighting her influence behind her 20 million sales and multi-platinum successful family rap group and brother E40. She is admired as "The First Lady" of her family rap group The Click, featuring her brothers E40, D-Shot and cousin B-Legit. She is also the founder Sprinkle Me Enterprise.

Suga-T empowers females and managed to soar in the male dominated Industry of Hip-Hop. Suga-T has also earned many awards along the way and sacrificed her entertainment career by going back to school to accomplish an AA, BA and Master's Degree and a variety of other credentials. Although Suga-T was originally branded as a Hip-Hop Legend, she is a songwriter/producer, talent developer & diverse artist that sing and rap exploring a variety of genres, including blues, gospel, jazz, EDM and pop, and created her own genre titling it "Rhythm & Rap. This savvy social entrepreneur visionary re-invented her brand and works as a coach, author, speaker, advocate, mentor, performer, actress, personality, spiritual comforter and TV/music producer, while holding a Guinness friendly record of the biggest brother and sister Hip Hop duet ever in history titled "Sprinkle Me," with her big brother "The Legendary E40."
